President Roosevelt Cries---HALT

WIRES TO A. M. DREW, ASKING HIM TO WAIT FOR HIS LETTER

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.--Assemblyman A. M. Drew of Fresno, author of the bill prohibiting aliens owning land in the State, received the following telegram from President Roosevelt today:

"Hon. A. M. Drew, Assembly Chamber, Sacramento, Cal.

"My letter to Governor about proposed legislation is on the way. Have sent you copy. Earnestly hope you will wait until it comes. I think you will agree entirely with what the letter contains.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

$10,000 TO BE GIVEN FOR JAPANESE CENSUS

SACRAMENTO Jan 28 — In accordance with the suggestion of President Roosevelt and Governor Gillett that the State Labor commissioner be given money for the collection of data regarding the number and occupation of Japanese in California in order that the Governor may make a report to the President and to Congress Speaker Phillip A Stanton introduced a bill in the Assembly this morning appropriating $10 000 for the purpose

A similar measure will be presented in the senate and it is believed by those spoken to that the Governor will have signed it within a short time

Trying to Save Pillar Of Church in Pool Room Gambling Case

Lamoge's Friends Come to the Rescue

In the case of Joseph Lamoge commission merchant and pillar in the First Congregational church accused of selling pools on the Emeryville races in conjunction with Charles Pritchard who was fined $100 by Police Judge Smith extraordinary efforts from some mysterious source have been put forth to prevent him from going to trial His prominence in religious circles and his previous good reputation are elements that have entered into the case to no small degree

Continued Three Times

Lamoge has had his case continued three times in Department 2 of the police court and during the interim it is whispered about that he has had powerful religious influences at work in his behalf

Dr Charles R Brown pastor of the First Congregational church of which Lamoge is a member in their affairs or denies that he has taken an interest in the case

Rev. Dr. Brown Denies

In response to questions put to him as to whether he had consulted with the legal department of the city government of Oakland the pastor neither makes a denial or affirmation

Did you consult with Police Judge Smith about the Lamoge pool selling case he was asked over the telephone

I have nothing to say in the matter was the reply

Did you consult with Police Judge Samuels in the case? was the next question

I have nothing to say was the reply

Did you confer with District Attorney Donahue was next asked

Is that all you have to talk about? queried the minister

Yes replied his inquisitor

Then all Good bye

The telephone closed with a snap

Lamoge's Partner Guilty

Lamoge's partner Charles Pritchard came up before Police Judge Smith and he was found guilty of selling pools for the management had been made by both of the police Unless that the maximum fine would be imposed in event of conviction the

MOTHER OF 21 CHILDREN

Gets Permit to Peddle on the Streets of Oakland. Has Many Letters Praising Her Protest On RACE SUICIDE.

Mary Lelan a Cherokee Indian aged 55 years and mother of 21 children made application to City Auditor Gross this morning for a free license to peddle watch charms and other necromantic trifles According to the woman's story she has two of her sons in college and six children in the public schools of this city In her many peregrinations she has visited Florida and every intervening state on the way to California

Many letters are produced by the Indian woman showing that she has been appreciated by various mayors and governors of states who all give her a recommendation and laud her practical protest against race suicide

The license was granted and Mary departed happy saying that she would educate all of her 21 children to grow up to be ladies and gentlemen

Her youngest is 4 years of age while her oldest is 44 years She has been married twice Her first husband was killed she states but her second one is only limned in spots thus in spelling Mary to retain the likelihood for her numerous brood

Big Sutro Tunnel on Fire

MINERS ARE OVERCOME BY THE SMOKE

Flames Held in Check, but Extent of Damage Is Unknown.

CARSON CITY, Nev., Jan. 28.--About 7 o'clock last evening fire was discovered in the Sutro tunnel at a point 3500 feet from the Ward shaft and four miles from the mouth of the tunnel.

An alarm was given and men rushed from all quarters to fight the flames.

At C. & C. Junction

The fire is at the C. and C. Junction, from which tunnels run in various directions to connect with the other mines.

The smoke, which prevented the men from making much headway, finally was carried through the combination shaft and force pumps were taken in from Sutro.

Men Overcome

After an all-night battle the men were able to get the fire out on the east side and the blaze is now held at the combination drift, but as yet the extent of the fire in other directions is unknown.

The tunnel was driven by the late Adoloh Sutro, under a special act of Congress and is 12 by 16 feet in size and about five miles in length. It is now used as a drain for all of the Comstock mines.

Several miners were over-

Former Oakland Woman Sues Southern Beauty Doctor

PHOTOGRAPH OF MRS CHRISTINE LESLIE
Arrows Point to Injuries to Her Features Which She Blames On Beauty Doctor.

LOS ANGELES Jan 28—Mrs Christine Leslie a recent Oakland resident and now the owner of the Franklin apartment house on North Broadway is also plaintiff in a suit filed today by Mrs Ella Harris a beauty doctor for damage claiming she has ruined her face and consequently her beauty

Mrs Harris was formerly of San Francisco and is also well known in Oakland where she has had and still has many society patrons The trouble started when John I Hartell who has charge of his mother's beauty parlor sued Mrs Christine Leslie for $70 alleged to be due for past services In filing an answer to the suit Mrs Leslie filed a counter claim for $190 damages for havoc done her beauty

Waxed Her Face

They poured a liquid over my face which hardened into a waxlike substance For forty eight hours I was held through fear not being able to move muscle of my face said Mrs Leslie Then they rubbed the skin from my face and neck causing me intense suffering They also took off a portion of each of my eyebrows Then for four weeks under the name of massage the beauty doctors tortured me by kneading and pinching the raw flesh which was trying to heal

When their work was done and my suffering was over I found that they had not only failed to give me the promised beauty but had robbed me of what I had possessed before I fell into their hands. Just look at me now

Eyesight Impaired

She added that no scars or blemishes had been removed from her face but that in fact her eyesight was impaired by the treatment and her good looks marred beyond redemption Young Harris claims

WAR OF WORDS IN THE CALHOUN TRIAL

Moore and Heney Engage in Some Lively Exchanges, but No Jurors Secured as Result of Battle.

(By JOSEPH E. BAKER)

SAN FRANCISCO January 28—Burns and his merry men were not so active and obtrusive this morning as they were yesterday Neither Burns nor Charles Oliver his chief lieutenant, was present in the courtroom Even Charles Corneau, Langdon's brother-in-law who has been a sort of fixture heretofore was absent. Strange opposition the immunity contract was speedily developed and seemed to the role till a League of Justice man was called He endorsed immunity and had his mind made up against Calhoun He went out of the box along with the fellows whose sympathies ran the other way

Some Sharp Passages

Two or three sharp passages between Heney and the elder Moore were the only even these interchanging counsel that has characterized every criminal trial In fact, the proceedings were as dull as dishwater No progress was made to warrant securing a jury, because every talesman called admitted a decided bias

I have listened in vain to the questioning of the attorneys to get some one on what sort of evidence the defense will introduce A general denial has been entered, but it is assumed that the defense will not be content with a mere negative of a sufficiency of the evidence

Fishing Excursion

Of course the law requires the prosecution to prove the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, but the subpoenaing of Tirey L Ford and other members of Calhoun's official staff indicates that Heney intends to force a fishing examination or compel the witnesses to refuse to testify The Ford trial William M Abbott was forced

SAN FRANCISCO January 28—Continuing a lapse of which he held the Special Prosecutor Heney [illegible] Langdon stirred Judge Lawlor during the examination Or rather it was he went soaring [illegible] things fluttering across plain to be seen

Judge Lawlor's Star

It was a short little flight led by Judge Lawlor flying and summoning Moore had sprung back He touched the attraction and Heney was started But it is when being by Judge Lawlor calmly to Heney in an order which he made to have counsel desist and have Moore proceed with the examination

Moore Gets a Rise

The rise which Moore got out of Heney came as a result of the interjection of the interrogation about those immunity contracts Moore uses this goad very often perhaps not with the intention of causing the special prosecutor to boil over but with the certain knowledge that whenever this particular line of inquiry noses itself into the record Heney cannot contain himself

He doesn't follow this line of questioning to tantalize the irritable Heney He simply seeks to get expressions of opinion from the jurymen concerning the immunity contracts that were ordered by

After one of the meetings however he discovered that his pocket book had been deftly removed and that his $300 diamond was gone as well as the girl herself McTeer was very anxious that Judge Samuels should know that he had not made any improper proposals to the young girl but had treated her like a perfect lady

Judge Samuels only comment was that she had hardly treated him like a perfect lady The wayward young woman's bail was fixed at $2000

Both of the young women will probably plead guilty in the Superior Court and attempt to be released on probation.

Roosevelt Adds 630,000 Acres to Cleveland Forest

WASHINGTON Jan 28 — The President today signed a proclamation adding more than 630 000 acres to the Cleveland National Forest in South California and eliminating from that reserve 1682 acres of land not considered suitable for national forest purposes

After these changes the forest has a present area of more than 1 400 acres This forest originally called Lake Service was named by President Roosevelt in July last in honor of the late President Cleveland who created that and other reserves on Washington's day in 1897

Thrown From Horse and His Brains Dashed Out

WADSWORTH, Nev., Jan. 28.—While riding along the big canal of the Wadsworth Light and Power Company this morning, Robert Esden, aged 12, and son of the president of the company, was thrown from his horse and had his brains dashed out against the trunk of a tree. It was the boy's duty each morning to ride along the ditch to look for possible breaks. When he failed to return at the usual time, his father made search and found the lifeless body, with the horse which had caused the accident standing watching over it.

DELAY OF A WEEK LIKELY IN HARRIMAN MERGER SUIT

PITTSBURG, Jan. 28.—It was expected rapid progress would be made today in taking the testimony of prominent Pittsburg and railroad men to the government suit to dissolve the $500,000,000 Harriman railroad merger which was finally begun here yesterday. It is reported that from five to ten days will be necessary to close up the case in this district.

The main point of the government was to establish that in securing freight here there was no competition between the Union and Southern Pacific roads. George G. Herring is the Pittsburg representative of both roads, and Attorney Severance examined the witnesses as to how Mr. Herring could compete with himself. They were questioned principally as to conditions before and after the alleged merger of the Harriman roads.

OAKLAND STILL FORGES AHEAD

Monthly and Weekly Returns Show Healthy Building and Financial Records.

Sanitary conditions existing in this city and recent law passed by the board of health, necessitating a monthly report of sewerage and plumbing conditions in their locality by the sanitary commissioners, was the theme of discussion at the first annual banquet of the Merchant Plumbers, last night. Plates were laid for sixty in the Hotel St. Mark banquet room and representative merchants from Berkeley, Alameda, Oakland and San Francisco were in attendance.

J. H. Eustice, president of the organization, presided as toastmaster. He spoke of general conditions in Oakland and told of the work the merchant plumbers are doing toward educating the apprentices of the plumbing trade along practical and scientific lines.

"In these days a man needs not only a perfunctory knowledge of bolts and bars and the uses of a soldering iron," said Eustice in the course of his talk. "he must possess an intelligent insight into hygienic conditions and the laws of sanitation."

F. C. Lowry, P. J. Sheey, of Berkeley, and Gus Thaler were among the other speakers, and W. H. Graham talked of a proposed measure to be introduced at the next annual meeting of the Merchant Plumbers, preventing the installation of plumbing or the connection of pipes in houses for people who owe a previous plumbing debt, however small, in any part of the State.

It is the purpose of the master and merchant plumbers to arrange a system whereby debtors who refuse to liquidate may be black-listed.

The organization of Merchant Plumbers was organized in May of last year and has at present an Oakland membership of 100.

The officers are: J. H. Eustice, president; A. H. McKown, secretary and J. Cruz, treasurer.

HUNKER BRANDS THEM ALL LIES

Millionaire Defendant Causes Amusement in Court by His Answers.

The Hunker-Leavitt case still occupies the attention of Judge Waste's court and seems no nearer solution than when it was called a month ago.

Some amusement was afforded the spectators this morning when Millionaire Hunker, the defendant, was on the stand. Hunker is very emphatic German, and when a long list of the assertions contained in Leavitt's claim against him for $10,000 in services claimed to have been given by Leavitt as a mining expert in Alaska were read to him he became more emphatic than usual.

"That is a lie," was the way of answering the queries, and when asked "How about this one?" he would reply "Well, that is another one—all lies."

Leavitt sat at the table with his attorneys and smiled secretly at the irate Hunker and seemed in no wise abashed by Hunker's designations of his statements as "lies, all lies."

SUTRO TUNNEL

come by the smoke and are in a serious condition.

At 2 o'clock the fire was under control. Between six hundred and seven hundred feet of timbering between the junction and the combination drift had been ruined but will be replaced in a few days. The fire has not interfered with pumping and water is flowing freely through the discharge boxes. The men who were overcome revived after a few hours. The managers of the tunnel state that the damage is not near so great as was anticipated.

Big Slump in Stocks

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 28. — News of the fire in the Sutro tunnel created considerable excitement in the Stock Exchange today. Holde's of Comstock shares were anxious to sell, the consequence being a serious slump in the market. There were heavy declines in all the Comstocks averaging nearly fifty per cent and in some cases the fall was greater than that. Should the fire not soon be extinguished, the drainage which has cost a vast sum of money to accomplish by means of the tunnel, will be interrupted and a suspension of work on many of the properties will result.

Emma Goldman Case Starts Today

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—With the last juror passed by both the defense and the prosecution, the case of the people vs. Emma Goldman will commence this afternoon before Police Judge Deasy. The "Queen of the Anarchists" is being tried, together with her alleged paramour, Benjamin L. Reitman, on a charge of calling an unlawful gathering. Attorney Kirk, who appears for the defense, declares the case will be in the hands of a jury late this afternoon.

Senator Stephenson Lacks One Vote

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28. — Senator Stephenson lacked one vote of election again today when the second ballot in joint assembly was taken. He received fourteen senato'ial votes and fifty-two in the assembly. There were present 132 members of the legislature, thus requiring eighty-seven votes to elect.

EMPEROR'S AIDE ATTACKS HIGH OFFICIAL

TOKIO, Jan. 28. A special report from Seoul conveys the news that while the imperial train was en route to Pyangyang, one of the Emperor's aides attacked the Home Secretary with a sword. The official escaped with his life, but suffered a wound, the severity of which is not yet known.

A bomb was thrown yesterday at a temporary building erected at Kaisyong for the reception of the Emperor. The general feeling of unrest has caused the imperial visit to Wiju to be abandoned.

RUNAWAY BREAKS GAS PIPE AND STARTS FIRE

A runaway delivery team this morning broke a small gas pipe at the intersection of Seventh and Market streets, setting fire to the grass and feed establishment of L. C. Sheldon. The fire department responded and quickly extinguished the flames. The fire is said to have been started by a boy carrying a lighted match too near the gas pipe, which had been broken. The damage was nominal.

WARRANTS OUT FOR FOUR HIGHBINDERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—As a result of the shooting of Won Quong on Dupont street last night by an unknown Chinaman, four warrants were issued this morning for highbinders supposed to be implicated in the assault, by Police Judge Shortall.

The warrants are for Chin Hark, My Kip, Dare Funny and John Doe.

PAULA IS PRETTY BUT SANGUINARY

For This and Numerous Other Reasons Agnostino Isola Seeks Divorce.

Agostino Isola filed a complaint in divorce proceedings this morning against Paula Isola. According to Isola he had a very feverish life with Paula and was never very sure when he went to bed at night whether he would wake up in Oakland or kicking his heels on the battlements of the New Jerusalem.

Isola says it was a favorite diversion of this fair Paula to grab a butcher knife, shriek like a banshee and chase him into a corner where he would protect himself with a chair and shudderingly wait for the "quick, hot anger of the langorous southern skies" to take a hike and give him a chance to swallow his heart and resume friendly relations with his courage.

Overcome by Gloom

At other times Paula is said to have been overcome by gloom. At such times she would predict a speedy, painless death for Agostino. Agostino tried to be thankful and believe that it was all for the best, but try as he would vain longings for death from old age would creep in. The sounds that floated in from the kitchen where Paula morosely whetted a butcher knife on the stovepipe gave Agostino insomnia and he could see no profit in the wifely industry that expended itself oiling and cleaning sanguinary looking stilettoes.

Nagged to Desperation

At other times Agostino avers that he was nagged to the point of desperation. As a perspicacious discoverer of seamy in the male panoply of indifference he says Paula holds all the trophies from the bantam weight medal to the Richard K. Fox heavyweight belt. Also he alleges infidelities numerous enough to get a dozen divorces.

LETTER CARRIERS THEATER PARTY

The Oakland Letter Carriers' Branch, No. 76, of the National Association of Letter Carriers, announces that through the courtesy of the management of the Liberty Theater they have arranged for a benefit theater party to be given during the last week of Richard Hotling's engagement, when he will appear in "A Midsummer Night's Dream." The date selected is Tuesday evening, February 2.

It has been the custom in the past for the carriers to give a dance, but as they have many friends who do not dance it was decided that theater party would be more favorable and successful.

Through the arrangement with the manager of the theater the carriers are to receive the benefit of the tickets to sell themselves, so their friends who intend seeing the performance on that evening are asked to purchase their tickets fro mthe carrier.

The committee in charge is as follows: Chas. M. Hultenkamp (chairman), E. Meyers, Thos. J. Gallagher, Wm. Bailey, Wm. J. O'Connor, Jos. Keaney, B. Golke.

MAJ. HAINS TRANSFERRED TO SAN FRANCISCO

CHICAGO, Jan. 28 — Major John Powell Hains, paymaster in the army and a brother of the man charged with the murder of William E. Annis, it was learned today, has been transferred to San Francisco. The transfer order, which was awaiting Major Hains upon his return from the trial of his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, is said to be merely in pursuit of army routine.

Wolfe Insurance Bill Is Introduced

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28. Insurance Commissioner E. Myron Wolfe held a conference with Governor Gillett today, as a result of which his standard form insurance bill was introduced in the senate by Bates and will be offered in the assembly by Pulcifer.

It consists of three amendments to the civil code prepared at a conference between guarantie and insurance interests, the main feature of which sets a time limit of ninety days for the payment of losses and fifteen months for bringing of suits.

The form adopted is that prevailing in New York, modified to suit California laws and decision.

The Governor approves this measure, whereas he vetoed a somewhat similar bill two years ago.

NURSE DIES SUDDENLY FROM HEART FAILURE

BERKELEY, Jan. 28. Mrs. Alice Miller died suddenly at the home of Mrs. L. F. Carlston, 182 Arlon street, early this morning. Heart trouble is supposed to be the cause of death. Mrs. Miller was acting in the capacity of a nurse at the Carlston home. Her husband, living in Stockton, survives her.

BRICKLAYERS TO DANCE DARE AWAY

No Expense Spared to Make Occasion An Event in Union's History.

On Saturday evening next the Bricklayers of Oakland will give an entertainment and dance at Germania Hall in this city which promises to go down in history as one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever given. No expense has been spared in the preparation for the event and many new and novel features will be introduced.

The following jingle on the program shows the boost spirit of the members:

"Come join us in dancing
All trouble away
The music entrancing,
Plays till break of day.

"Our new city hall
With columns and gilding
We show at this ball
And soon will be building."

The San Francisco bricklayers will assist in making the event success. The following is a list of the committees:

San Francisco committee—J. Ringrose, George Bakely, J. Barry, Timothy Crowley, R. Hopkins.

Assisted by C. H. Prefountain. Reception committee—J. J. Perry, J. Hacket, E. Spillane, George Sharp, V. Miller, W. Abby, and C. Townsand. Floor committee—Thomas Ryan, R. Pidgeon, F. M. Clausen, E. The officers of the organization are: Thomas Brain, president; V. Miller, vice president; George Pidgeon, treasurer; Thomas Ryan, financial secretary; A. J. Perry, recording secretary; George Sharp, sergeant-at-arms; James Hacket, deputy; D. J. Shearer, alternate deputy.

SUES BEAUTY DOCTOR

Mrs. Leslie was to take the "deep wrinkle treatment," for which she was to pay $150. This she denies.

$10,000 Beauty

"I was four weeks taking the treatment," said Mrs. Leslie yesterday, "and Mrs. Harris promised to make a $10,000 beauty of me in two weeks. She told me, with my beautiful blue eyes and brown hair, that I would be equal to any one for looks. My complexion was the only thing at fault.

"Look at me now. My eyesight is so impaired that I can hardly see across the street, the pores of my skin have been made large, there is an ugly discoloration where the mask ended, the scar has not been removed and the blemishes upon my face have been made worse.

"I would not go through the pain I suffered from wearing that mask for forty-eight hours for anything in the world. She put a liquid over my face which took off all the skin and then she began the treatments. I was obliged to take an attendant with me and ride to and from her offices. I think if anything I am asking too little of these people. Mrs. Harris is the one I made all arrangements with, but as her son took over his mother's business he is the one who is suing me."

TRYING TO SAVE

jury found him guilty and the fine of $500 with the alternative of spending 250 days in jail was imposed.

Police Judge Samuels, in the case of Henry Gemmell, convicted of pool selling, imposed the same sentence, although the defendant did not have any money at all with which to pay his fine. Judge Samuels explained his sentence by stating that he would have to follow the public announcement that the extreme penalty of the law would be imposed on the guilty.

Lanagan has not yet been tried. During the continuance mysterious forces have been at work on his behalf but without results as far as the working of justice is concerned.

PREVENTS ACCIDENT IN HALTING RUNAWAY HORSE

AT LAST THEY'VE DISCOVERED A COAL THAT NEEDS NO COAXING

GOOD NEWS TO THE WORK-WEARY, HURRIED HOUSEKEEPER WHO FOR YEARS HAS FOUGHT SOOT, CLEANED DIRTY STOVES, POKED, COAXED AND DOCTORED A SLUGGISH KITCHEN FIRE—NO MORE FUEL TROUBLES NOW IN STORE.

American Block Coal is rapidly increasing in popularity in leaps and bounds and thousands of women are singing its praises every day. The American Fuel Co., who are placing this coal on the market, are being swamped with orders, dealers are being forced to carry it and are gradually discontinuing their efforts to sell substitute or other coals.

During the last three years over twenty voluntarily written letters have been received from consumers praising the coal. In the most extravagant terms the wonderful merits of this coal are told. One woman writes under date of Jan 26th, as follows: "We had much of American Block Coal but were somewhat skeptical all that was claimed for it, so we decided to test it and were agreeably surprised. We have a grate and like a cheerful open fire very many nary coal, however, is full of screenings and burns with so much dust and smoke that we found it all other disagreeable. The American block, however had no screenings and burned with a bright, cheerful hot fire with no noticeable smoke.

"A lump the size of a man's head put in the grate early in the evening burned with a steady bright flame until long after we had retired for the night. Nearly every morning we found enough coal in the grate, ready to kindle the fire again."

Another woman writes under date of Jan. 25th, as follows: "In my kitchen I find no need of a gas stove when one burns American Block as it lights so easily and heats so quickly, making it possible to get breakfast, including hot biscuits, quicker than a gas range. It saves fully one-third the work as there is no soot, smoke, clinkers or waste."

There are bona fide letters and were sent in voluntarily. The American Fuel Co. has scores of more just like them from every section of the county.

If this coal is as good as the users of it say it is (and they ought to know) is there any reason why any housewife should poke and coax and doctor a sluggish slow burning fire and spend hours in the kitchen that could be saved by burning American Block? Is there any reason why a fellow should cuss and swear at a fire that won't light those frosty mornings when by phoning the American Fuel Co. he can get a coal that will burn?

About 50 per cent of the housekeepers in Alameda county say this coal has been a revelation to them—that they never burned anything to equal it and their names and addresses and letters are open for any one to read who wants to see them.

American Block Coal can best be ordered by phoning Oakland 770, Home Phone A 1870. Berkeley residents should patronize the Berkeley yards, Phone Berkeley 1728. Alameda residents should call up Alameda 2892 and place orders through Mr. Chas. Neal who represents the American Fuel Co. in Alameda. The main offices are on Broadway opposite Ye Liberty Theater. A big brass coal hod stands out in front.

—A practical electrical hearing device for the deaf and partial deaf.

We rather hesitate in writing this advertisement, for we realize that people troubled with their hearing are heartily discouraged in finding anything to help them, and exceedingly cautious about trying any new appliance for fear of destroying their hearing altogether.

Unless we were certain that this new electrical appliance would do all that is claimed for it and would actually permanently improve the hearing of those to whom we sold them, so that they could be eventually discarded, we would not carry them and much less spend money in advertising them.

They are in fact a miniature telephone, even less conspicuous than glasses, with transmitter, ear-piece and batteries.

The receiver fits the ear and can be covered by the hand, the transmitter and batteries fit in your pocket, the sound it attracts falls upon the ear in a natural manner and actually improves the hearing.

We will from time to time have considerable to say relative to this instrument and request that you read each talk carefully. A number of people are now wearing them. A demonstrator will be pleased to permit you to test one at the store, and they are well worth looking into.

We wish it understood, however, that they are not applicable in every case, and will only be sold to those who will be permanently benefited.

Descriptive matter mailed upon request. It will do no harm to investigate this instrument.

Rudolph Spreckels and dealt out one by one as payment for testimony with which it was hoped to send the higher-ups to prison

Immunity Does not Please

Heney doesn't like it. He never has liked it and as the time for wringing testimony draws nearer he is getting to like it less and less. He would sacrifice Burns' mustache to eliminate this question from the trial. There is nothing to prevent it however.

It is very wearisome this bickering. It causes counsel and the press members to yawn and lean back in their chairs and stretch.

This morning it brought forth something of a storm. When Moore had opened up the old wound in Postmaster Walter Bucks 758 Stevenson street Burns came back with a question.

Gives a Sharp Answer

"Suppose Gallagher wouldn't testify in any of these cases unless you gave him immunity to them all?"

"In that case I think I would go the other way round and get the real culprits" replied Buck much to Heney's dismay.

"Well suppose you had tried for five months to do it that way would you?"

But the Moore interrupted and the objection to the question having been sustained Heney had to change his tactics.

Moore touched the nominee's most sensitive when he asked whether he had ever heard of the prosecution being after any other higher-ups other than Patrick Calhoun and Louis Glass. The special prosecutor did not like this either. He was beckoned on in the predicament which he is bound even time to run afoul of the rules.

General Discussion

The general discussion which followed the question by Moore ended in the uttering of words about the immunity contract. Heney offered to produce the immunity contracts in court to show just what the supervisors had contracted for by Spreckels only he did not care to have that Spreckels had dealt out the immunity.

"And when you do that" said Attorney Moore "we will also be pleased to learn by whom the initiative was instituted and what was said when they were distributed."

Well that will all come out in the trial replied Heney.

Yes we know it will and well we ought to, was the answer Moore made and he was quite sure the production that the immunity contracts will play one of the big features in the case before the jury.

Hostilities Again

"Did it ever occur to you that the district attorney had the witnesses of the supervisors upon the immunity contracts were turned over to the entire legal staff?" asked Attorney Moore of Charles S. Wheat when cross-examination began.

Here was one again. It was the commencement of hostilities all over again. It brought out everything but personalities. It called forth charges and insinuations from both the bar and the Heney asked whether Hiram Johnson ever heard that Robinson Gray Otis had received $15 00 for writing up Pacific stories in his paper in Los Angeles by voting the dock in the grand jury.

"And did not even hear that Mr. Heney stated in a public speech that he made in the south that within a month he would have General Otis in jail" asked Byington.

Otis in the Case

"I never said any such thing" hotly retorted Heney.

"Well you did" he was reminded by Byington. "You were quoted as having said so by every newspaper in Chicago both those for and against the prosecution."

The court brought an abrupt end to the story at this point when counsel was ordered to refrain from cross-examination in these lashes.

Addressing himself to Stanley Moore Judge Lawlor was severe in admonishing him to be good to Heney.

"Counsel should indeed the court is to pry into these situations I will state one of leading interrogations and the court and you will proceed on other lines."

But even the reprimand Lawlor had delivered Moore was not through with Heney.

Moore then asked whether Heney had not stated that he would be tried again notwithstanding the two acquittals he has scored. What he will do when called to the stand can be only conjectured, although he has steadily said he is innocent of complicity in bribery or knowledge of its commission in the trolley matter. Ford is the only connecting link between Calhoun and Abe Ruef for it is not contended that any of the United Railroads officials had any dealings with the supervisors.

Calhoun's Stand

While Ruef was convicted in his second trial Ford has been twice acquitted. Just how Heney proposes to connect Calhoun with the promises alleged to have been given the supervisors by Gallagher and Ruef does not appear and the defense is silent as to how it will meet the inference which the prosecution will undoubtedly strive to draw.

Mr. Calhoun declined to announce his course of action in advance, contenting himself by saying with great emphasis:

"I have no knowledge of bribery being committed by anybody and reiterate the statement I made at the beginning of this affair that the United Railroads never paid any official of San Francisco any money or authorized anyone else to pay money to officials. Not only was no money paid by my company to secure the trolley franchise, but I had no reason to suspect that money was paid by anybody till this prosecution was instituted. I am entirely innocent."

Of what he proposed to do in the trial he would say nothing.

Tries Case in Court

"I try my cases in court not in the newspapers" he replied.

So the readers of THE TRIBUNE are as wise as I am as to what line of action the defense will take. I know no more about what the prosecution will do. I have surmises but I hardly think it proper to publish them while the trial is in progress.

This has been another short day in the trial owing to the examination of the venire. Another draft of jurors was summoned which probably accounts for Burns and his men being busy on the outside.

Incidentally I hear that the jurors already passed are being investigated with a vigor which trenches on the oft reported efforts issued by Judge Lawlor, but which the special detectives under Burns appear to regard as merely Pickwickian as applied to themselves.

to testify despite his protest but the prosecution got nothing from him.

Now Ford has been acquitted and in his address to the Ford jury Deputy District Attorney O'Gara exonerated Thomas P. Ford personally in the trolley matter. Abbott testified that he knew nothing whatever of the alleged bribery of the supervisors. It is privately admitted by the prosecution that there is nothing against Gallagher, who is expected to testify as Abbott did.

Tirey Ford's Position

Ford alone remains as possible source of information for the prosecution. But Ford is still under indictment and Heney recently stated that Ford would be tried again notwithstanding the two acquittals he has scored. What he will do when called to the stand can be only conjectured, although he has steadily said he is innocent of complicity in bribery or knowledge of its commission in the trolley matter. Ford is the only connecting link between Calhoun and Abe Ruef for it is not contended that any of the United Railroads officials had any dealings with the supervisors.

but I couldn't see this juror at he said.

Heney talked and then the talesman was excused.

Assistant District Attorney Oliver suggested that Attorney Moore & Heney question the prospective jurors on their opinions of the prosecution's contention that the immunity contracts were not to be considered.

Detective Warren of the Western Electric Company by whom Heney is employed had an opinion as to the effect that immunity had in influencing Mr. Calhoun and was questioned after a short examination by both sides.

There had been entirely too much immunity was the opinion of Walter Buck. Department manager of the United Railroads Company. He lives at 758 Stevenson street and was examined by Attorney Moore.

Challenged by Defense

Counsel for the defense after objecting that the talesman had not been fairly challenged by Heney began to attack on Buck's character.

You don't think all of the jurors exception to the ruling of the court sustaining the objection of Heney Oliver to a question which was leading the talesman as to his connection with the prosecution and the conspiracy charges against the officers of the United Railroads.

Slips and Smile

Here Buck smiled. Heney objected to the smile which was sustained by the court.

Buck was then excused.

Judge Lawlor Angry

He started to say that Heney had no right to ask questions that were not pertinent to the case on trial and Judge Lawlor was angry. He said that Heney was trying to get before the jury matters that could not be introduced in evidence.

Heney replied that he was only trying to ask questions that would show the bias of the jurors.

Judge Lawlor was angry with Heney because of the comment Moore had made on the ruling of the court.

Moore's statement was withdrawn and Heney apologized.

Moore then asked whether the talesman had formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Calhoun from what he had read in the newspapers.

Heney objected to the question as to what he had read in the newspapers.

Moore then asked whether the talesman had formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Calhoun from what he had read in the newspapers.

Heney objected to the question as to what he had read in the newspapers.

Moore vs. Heney

Heney and Moore had a heated argument which was finally settled by Lawlor who ordered Moore to confine himself to questioning the talesman and not to argue with Heney.

Moore then asked whether the talesman had formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Calhoun from what he had read in the newspapers.

Heney objected to the question as to what he had read in the newspapers.

Set Opinions

Moore then asked whether the talesman had formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Calhoun from what he had read in the newspapers.

Heney objected to the question as to what he had read in the newspapers.

Burns in Court

Detective William J. Burns was in court during the examination of talesmen. He sat in the rear of the room and was not noticed by the attorneys.

Objection Sustained

Moore's objection was sustained.

Have you formed any opinion from the newspaper accounts of the case as to the guilt or innocence of the defendants?

Do you believe that to that extent?

I think I could.

In the United Railroads matter?

Yes sir.

Talesman Excused

The challenge was allowed and Park was excused.

John W. Hyatt, Charles S. Hutchinson and A. Brussel and Edward L. Eyre were then called, challenged and excused.

Charles S. Hutchinson was excused on his own challenge.

Edward Eyre, a retired capitalist who lives at 1015 Buchanan street, was excused on the challenge of Heney.

Eyre said that he had formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Calhoun from what he had read in the newspapers.

Heney challenged Eyre for cause

CONGRESSMAN'S SON GETS CHANCE

Alleged Leader of Student Locker Thieves Will Be Restored to Grace.

BERKELEY, Jan 28 —Gerald McKinlay Herbert Merritt and Will Stone expelled from the Berkeley high school a week ago after confession of a long series of petty larcenies will be reinstated as probationers The boys will be brought before the school board at a meeting within a few days and accompanied by their parents will be put upon their honor to reform If the promises are fair and the satisfactory conclusion makes a showing of definite reformation the ban will be lifted from them and the privileges of the school will be granted

Star Chamber Methods

This arrangement is conditional as yet on the attitude of the student body towards inquisitorial methods which are about to be put in vogue by the directors It is known that a number of students are objecting to the star chamber methods of examination different suspects and there is talk of a special appeal to Superintendent Bunker for less rigorous methods in dealing with suspects

This spirit is voiced by Mrs Duncan McKinlay wife of Congressman McKinlay and mother of Gerald McKinlay who was accused of being the head leader of the band of boys suspected of robbing the lockers

Put on Honor

Put these boys on their honor said Mrs McKinlay They have been punished enough As soon said as I can bring them before the Atlantic to the Pacific as a criminal and degraded boy Think of this for a boy fifteen years old Surely the school board must know that there is some good left in these boys and girls they must not overlooking While I believe that thievery and stealing must be stopped I believe that the guilty ones have been taught a lesson they will not forget

Bunker an Optimist

Mrs McKinlay s appeal for the honor system was made in person to Superintendent Bunker Bunker is an optimist by nature He believes that the discipline has been fix in the high school that there has been a lack of sympathy between the teachers and the students He is now to make an effort to bring about new conditions more satisfactory to the parents and the children, if he can and to this end will shortly call a meeting of teachers to present his views

McKinlay Sullen

The reinstatement of McKinlay Stone and Merritt will depend also upon the recommendation of Chief of Police Vollmer McKinlay was hard for the police to handle when the investigation of the thefts at the school was first undertaken Stone and Merritt confessed to their shortcomings at the first interview but the congressman s son was sullen and wary and it was not until he realized that his companions had turned State that he submitted to a satisfactory sweating so the police say

Chief Vollmer is at present in Sacramento, but or his return he will be asked to use his endeavors to restore the three boys to grace and the way will then be cleared for the school board to take them back on probation

Superintendent Bunker refused to discuss the matter

Hereafter the locker room at the school will be guarded as a precaution A teacher or a janitor will be in charge and students will be permitted to enter it only at certain times and then under the eyes of the caretaker

MRS. H. E. STEWART, Oakland Girl Who Eloped On Friday.

DEFIES PARENTS; WEDS A JOCKEY

Miss Hallie Henry and "Longshot" Stewart Married Secretly at Santa Rosa

Forgiveness and a welcome to the home of the bride s mother has been extended to Mr and Mrs Harry E Stewart who eloped last week and getting at naught parental objections were married at Santa Rosa The wedding became public yesterday

The bride was Miss Hallie Henry daughter of Mrs J M Henry of Vernon Heights The groom is known throughout the racing world as 'Longshot' Stewart Thereby hangs the tale

Objected to Jockey

Mrs Henry strenuously objected to having a jockey in the family Even so famous a one as Longshot Stewart was not welcome as a son-in-law When she discovered that her daughter had given her heart into the keeping of the horseman she took steps to shatter the budding romance

Miss Hallie was instructed to take a big 'splasher' bow of jockey colors off her dresser and burn it up She took it off but — She put it in the top drawer where she could peek at it frequently Finally she told Stewart all about it

Well elope" he announced 'You never win any big stakes unless you take a 'longshot ' Miss Hallie expressed her willingness to plunge and the marriage in Santa Rosa is the result

Friend Tells Mamma

Returning to Oakland Mr and Mrs Stewart resolved to keep their wedding a secret until a sister of Mrs Stewart, who is traveling in the East should return home and intercede for parental forgiveness But the plan miscarried A friend of the family told the bride's mother all about it She called upon her daughter and was informed of the facts All was forgiven and Mr and Mrs Stewart are now temporarily domiciled at the Henry home

WHY NOT END ALL INDIGESTION FOREVER

Have Your Stomach Trouble Over With So You Can Eat Your Favorite Foods.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion and Stomach trouble is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Diapepsin

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive powers, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach

People with weak Stomachs should eat Diapepsin after meals, and there will be no more Indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn Sour risings Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Vomiting and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors All these symptoms resulting from a sour stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after eating one Triangule of Diapepsin

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape s Diapepsin now and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite and what you eat will taste good because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there is not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living

"GREATER OAKLAND" BILL DISCUSSED IN CONFERENCE

Features of Joint City and County Government Are Debated

(By EDWARD A O'BRIEN)

SACRAMENTO Jan 28 Yesterday afternoon for four hours constitutional amendment No 11 which was introduced in the upper house by Senator Stetson of Oakland to enable citizens to establish a Joint city and county government which is wanted is sought by the city of Oakland was discussed in the senate chamber before a joint committee comprising the committee on county government of the Senate and the committee on constitutional amendments of the House At the end of the discussion of subject it was continued until this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the same place

No action was taken in the way of amending the measure save by the movement of reconsidering the wishes of the members of the two committees on the subject

It was evident however that there was opposition to the measure at least on the part of the representatives from the towns of Alameda county notably Assemblyman Otis of Alameda and Silver of Hayward Senator Strobridge of Hayward Senator Black of the latter place and Senator Savage of San Pedro who is opposing the move which Los Angeles is making to get her harbor so as to annex a number of cities in the south and secure a large share of valuable water front

The merits of the amendment and the debate of the proponents of the measure were supported in speeches by Senator Stetson Frank Bilger Walter Vick A Jones George Hoffman C W Pool C W Wendell and O B Hutchinson all of Oakland

Senator Stetson opened the meeting by saying that the bill was introduced at the request of the Oakland people and that it was their wish that it be passed

Oaklanders Present

The conference was presided over by Senator Thompson of Alameda who asked the Oakland people a number of questions all of which were answered in a very satisfactory manner

The representatives of Oakland and vicinity who were present were as follows I W Bilger ex-president Chamber of Commerce Oakland A J Hass ex-president Merchants Exchange Oakland Theo Gier ex-president Merchants Exchange Oakland Wilber Walker Secretary Merchants Exchange Oakland H Brink Citizens League Berkeley C W Poole Building Trades Council Oakland F Wendell Building Trades Council Oakland A M Thompson Central Labor Council Oakland E J Mott Realty Board Oakland A J Griffith Real Estate Association Oakland C E Hotle Real Estate Association Oakland F Russell Secretary Board of Trade Alameda W Mullen Fruitvale George Hoffman Alameda Hudson Berkeley Dall's Wesley Elmhurst I B Russell Irvington

The meeting was open by an explanation of the amendment by Senator Stetson after it had told the origin of the proposed measure

Los Angeles Barred

Senator Stetson said that the measure did not affect any of the cities of the state except Alameda counties It affected municipal corporations only which had a population of 40 000 There were only two districts which could comply with that condition and they were Los Angeles and Oakland Los Angeles was eliminated from the benefits of the amendment because of another condition namely that the proposed new territory could not have more than sixty square miles and Los Angeles as had been ascertained from the surveyor of the city had in area of sixty-one square miles

Senator Willis asked if precautions had been taken to prevent Los Angeles from availing herself of the provisions of the act

Stetson replied that they had by the insertion of this limitation restricting the area of the proposed joint city and county government

Assemblyman Coghlan asked if the bill would prevent what he referred to as Greater San Francisco

Stetson said that the bill did not in any way legislate to affect that city

Cities Must Be Contiguous

Willis asked if the line of the city and county government included a county or cities that were contiguous or in other words had the cities in the incorporation to be contiguous, without any intervening district

Stetson replied that the cities would have to be contiguous The eastern part of Alameda county see replied was like an island It was desired to cut off the county which it was proposed to cut off in that district there were six municipal corporations each of varying size and in the character of business and inhabitants Those people first came into the new municipality jointly The area of the county was such and the wealth of the territory was so great that nature seemed here to have decreed where the lines should be drawn in the formation of the new municipality The population of Oakland and that district was in keeping all the time That population was represented at the meeting by members of all the leading commercial and labor organizations and by men in every walk of life That was proof of the fact that the sentiment of the people was in favor of the project

Senator Wright said that he was in favor of the proposition

Strobridge of Hayward asked Wright if he had so made up his mind that he could not change it after hearing the other side If that side should carry conviction with it

Wright replied that in the matter of legislation he was always open to conviction

Big Petition for Measure

Stetson then told of the petition which had been addressed to the members of the Legislature, asking them to give the people of Alameda county an opportunity of voting on this matter It said that the petitions had been handed in the last election and had been signed either before the petitioners had cast their ballots or after they had voted In Oakland alone, 78 per cent of the votes had signed and a large percentage of the people in the surrounding towns did the same thing He was satisfied that the rest of the voters who did not sign the documents failed for the reason that they had not been approached or in some manner escaped the canvassers

Otis asked if it were not a fact that the people who had signed had done so simply because they had been asked to do so in order to get the matter submitted so that they might vote upon it rather than because they were in favor of the proposition

Stetson said he might have been mistaken in the matter but the petitions were present and spoke for themselves The senator then read the petition as follows

We the undersigned residents voters and property owners of Alameda county respectfully request you to use all honorable means and efforts to procure from the legislature of the State of California such legislation as will permit the submission to the vote of said county of the question of the formation into a consolidated city and county of such portions of said county, namely, as shall express a desire to become such consolidated city and county

No Intervening Settlements

Senator Price asked if in the proposed incorporation there would be any intervening settlements

Stetson replied that there would be no such settlements The section would have to be contiguous and lines have a population of 150 000

Senator Savage asked why the Oakland would consent to have the equalizement in the bill that hour would have to be a unit of 67 per cent in favor of the proposition

Stetson said that generally a majority ought to suffice but if there was a desire to require more than a majority the interested public would have to do the best they could

Savage replied that a majority was not the rule in the selling of bonds

Stetson declared that that was the case when a municipality was incurring an indebtedness This however was a question which in the purpose is to say the people

Strobridge asked how many of the counties of the state would be affected by the proposed measure

Stetson said he thought that all of them would do what they were doing

It was asked what part of the county would be detached

It was said that Berkeley and Alameda should agree to join in the movement

It was said that there would be an equalization of county found under such a set of circumstances

Stetson said that if the incorporation should be formed, the section of the county in which he lived would not be a little slip beyond the edge of many cities

Stetson said that there would still be Berkeley and Alameda, to offer with all the rest down in the eastern portion of the county

Strobridge asked if it were not a fact that a vote of the people would be taken on the question of the bill Finally Stetson replied and said the matter would be voted down by those places invited to did not want to join in the city we found in accord with those and the bill would be lost in many of their districts

Senator Savage asked what reasons or arguments could be used in favor of the bill by the representatives of Los Angeles

No Agreement

A Jones replied for Stetson and declared that there had been no agreement of the kind entered into He had been working on the matter for a number of years and had been president of the Merchants Exchange, where the movement first originated and he had never considered or discussed with that purpose in view

Stetson referred then to the Supervisors. He said that three of the six resided outside the city in the rural districts They did not have anything to do with the city and county government of Oakland and possibly in the matter of the location of streets Such business as a rule was in the outside section They had built long roads and had to come to the city to transact business and had to pay toll on the roads and bridges They had no interest in the matter of the location of streets and in the improvements which were to be made in the city and Oakland would be the dominant factor in the government of the city and county

Stetson said that all that would be done by Oakland would be the dictation of the Supervisors

JOSE GOMEZ IS NOW CUBA'S CHIEF

United States Formally Turns Over All Rights and Titles to County.

HAVANA Tomas Jose Miguel Gomez was inaugurated president of the re-established Cuban Republic a few minutes after noon. He and the American commissioners then went to an end with the retiring Governor Magoon and other high officials.

The American left in Cuban warships and transports after the formal turning over of the government to the native officials.

Big Crowd

An immense crowd stood with bared heads in the plaza in front of the palace when President Gomez stepped out on the palace balcony and took the oath of office from the chief justice of the Supreme Court. The President was surrounded by the cabinet of State and members of the diplomatic corps and the special envoys in full uniforms. The day was intensely warm. There was little or no cheering from the hollow throngs lining the thoroughfares over which the inauguration procession passed. The Cubans contenting themselves with raising their hats as a tribute to the new president and former American Governor.

Magoon Quits

Returning to the reception room of the palace Gomez received from the hands of Mr Magoon the final decree turning over all the affairs of the Island together with an order from Washington terminating Mr Magoon's commission as provisional governor.

Vice-President Sanguily was sworn in at a special session of the senate the morning of the house of representatives was also in session.

The presentation of the new Cuban flag which was raised on the Parque of the palace marked the end of the American intervention. The Cuban flag has flown throughout this period. The American civil governor and the American army officer detailed to supervise the various governmental departments having really served throughout as Cuban officials.

Old Flag Lowered

The old flag will be sent to Washington and placed in the national museum. Mr Magoon will go home on a warship convoyed by the battleships Maine and Mississippi, while the army officers will travel on board the transport McClellan. Mr Magoon goes to Knight's Key, Florida whence he will take a train direct to Washington.

THE LATE JOHN T. COE.

TAPS SOUNDED FOR A VETERAN

John T. Coe, Pioneer Settler, Passes Beyond in Shadow of Old Age.

John T. Coe, a pioneer resident of Oakland, died at 9 o'clock last night at the home of his son, Mrs. A. C. Blanchard, 1515 Sixth avenue, which he has occupied for the past fourteen years.

Deceased was eighty-eight years old. His death was caused by the infirmities attending old age. He was ill but two days.

Death was born in Dublin, New York, February 13, 1821. He later went to West Point, where he met Miss Sarah Pilot Mattice and in that city on Sunday, September 4, 1851, Mrs. Coe died May 11, 1890.

When the call for volunteers was sounded at the outbreak of the civil war Coe was among the first to answer.

He joined the Ninth Regular Massachusetts Volunteers as a private, but after three months he was made assistant quartermaster under Col. Fisher, and for two years under him until the close of the civil war.

Coe then went west and for several years was engaged in mining in Arizona, where he met with varied success. From Arizona he came to Oakland. He has for many years been engaged in the insurance and collection agency business.

Funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Taylor undertaking parlors. Friendship and Jefferson streets, under the auspices of the G. A. R., of which Coe was a member.

He is survived by Mrs. A. C. Ebbenson and Mrs. T. V. Quinn, nieces, and R. S. Mattice, P. W. Mattice and T. A. Magee, nephews, and E. B. Herald, a cousin.

DENTAL LAW IS UNREASONABLE

So Declares Dr. Schmidt in Defense of Bill Introduced by Hurd.

The following communication has been received by THE TRIBUNE relative to the present dental law in force.

LIVERMORE, Cal., Jan. 26, 1909.

Editor Tribune, Oakland, Cal.

Dear Sir: Recently in New York State and Iowa much time has been wasted in the courts to California because the law was not explicit enough to contain all the necessary points, but now, the dental laws of California have been tested in the highest courts and found to be a model.

I have been in practice twenty years and thus am thoroughly familiar with the local practice. I have served from eighteen months to two years of my application for having by fraud obtained a diploma, and have had my license revoked by the board of examiners. I have seen the evil effects of the present law in this respect, and have been trying for years to get a change in the law, but have failed. Now I am willing to pay for the privilege of selling my practice, and believe that dentists from outside our own State from selling here, and by so doing will find the present law unfair and inadequate.

Illiberal Law

But aside from this difficulty the law is in many other respects illiberal. I will not bother you with details, but will call attention to the fact that the board of examiners is composed entirely of graduates of dental colleges only, on the ground that dentists in such colleges receive more scientific instruction than those graduated in New York, Ohio or Germany or England. It is certain California colleges.

There is no objection to the better educated professional with the idea that the public is thereby protected. A person willing to clothe with power to grant and revoke licenses, without let or hindrance and without check or review of their action or abuse of power, and others, and this thing has been put in the State and there exist today several instances.

Aim of Hurd Bill

It will readily be seen that under laws so arbitrary in the hands of unscrupulous and unprincipled men prosecution of law breaking may be perverted into persecution for private interests. In fact, against such abuses, and the consequent injustice, the Hurd bill is aimed.

The editorial in THE TRIBUNE of January 24 claims that Senator Hurd's bill favors quacks and tends to injure public interests. An ends with the clumsy bugbear. Any bill should be judged on its merits. This simply begs the question. The real question is, why the objection? The practitioner of long experience or the fresh graduate, out student with a sheepskin under his arm?

The Hurd bill stands for simple justice and against the practice of granting dental licenses to graduates of California colleges only, on the ground that dentists in such colleges receive more scientific instruction than those graduated in New York, Ohio or Germany or England. CHARTER ISSUE MEETS DEFEAT

San Jose Opposes Referendum, Initiative and Recall by Large Majority.

SAN JOSE, Jan. 28. Complete returns from all the election precincts show that every proposed amendment to the city charter was overwhelmingly defeated. On some of the propositions the negative vote was nearly six times greater than the affirmative. The most popular proposition was that to abolish the legal status of the city police court which was defeated by only 307 votes. This was the number 13. The proposition which was shown to be the most unpopular was amendment No. 12 which would have done away with the requirement of service of signed call for recall petitions and call was left to the discretion of the council. Nearly all the precincts, with the exception of those outside of those already specifically mentioned, gave majorities against the proposition, but in each instance the vote was light. Last year's vote was about two to one.

Less than 50 per cent of the voters voting strength participated in the election.

FUNERAL OF COL. WEST OCCURS THIS EVENING

The funeral of the late Colonel Hugh West, secretary of the Fish Commission Department, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock from the Alice Brown Funeral Parlors, in Eighth and Grand streets. Rev. Dr. Goddard will officiate. The pallbearers will be Shipp Council No. 6, Knights of Columbus. Rev. Father Hanley will officiate at the funeral of the late Colonel West. The pallbearers will be members of the dental profession of the city, with whom Colonel West was associated for many years. The active pallbearers will be Dr. Frederick Peck, Dr. Frank Hatch, Dr. Ray Dr. Goddard, Dr. Dr. Hodges, Dr. Dr. Dr.

Recall of Japan's Consul-General.

A joint resolution has been introduced in the State Legislature by Senator Marc Anthony requesting the California Senators and Representatives in Congress to present the activities of the Japanese Consul-General at Sacramento to influence domestic legislation affecting the Japanese to the State Department at Washington as a reason for giving him his exequatur and the demand that he be forthwith recalled by his government as a persona non grata. The resolution is based on the allegation that he has personally importuned Governor Gillett to prevent the enactment of the anti-Japanese bills pending before the Legislature. But Governor Gillett openly denies that the Consul-General made any attempt to influence legislation.

If the Japanese Consul-General had offended as charged it would undoubtedly have been a grave indiscretion a breach of international courtesy and an abuse of diplomatic privilege. Still it would not have been without precedent. During Wu Ting Fang's first term as Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington for China he not only interceded with the President and the State Department against the passage of the Chinese Exclusion Act which was then under consideration by Congress but he went so far as to make himself conspicuous as an active lobbyist at the national capitol in his efforts to defeat the measure. Although on a previous occasion when a British Embassador was inveigled into meddling in an American presidential campaign by indiscreetly answering the so-called Murchison letter he was promptly declared to be persona non grata and was recalled by his government, no action was taken at Washington against the Oriental diplomat for his much more offensive intermeddling with our domestic affairs. Moreover Wu Ting Fang has been since received a second time at Washington as the accredited representative of his government. His offense although much graver than that of British Embassador West was overlooked and condoned. And had the Japanese Consul-General made an attempt to influence legislation affecting his people he might in self defense have cited the Chinese Minister's experience at Washington as a precedent which justified his action.

Utility of the Marine Corps.

A good deal of unnecessary fuss seems to be made at the present time over the question of the disposition of the United States marine corps. The agitation seems to be based on a lack of knowledge of the purpose of the corps' organization.

The marine corps was created in the British navy and incorporated in the navy of the United States as the defensive arm of the officers' quarters on board a warship against any possible mutiny on the part of the crew. As a safeguard it has proved itself invaluable. Without the marines aboard a warship its officers would be absolutely at the mercy of the crew in the event of the defection of the latter and on more than one occasion it has proved its worth in the suppression of a mutinous spirit.

It is the knowledge of the fact that the marine corps is included in a warship's company to enforce discipline among the crew that makes its members unpopular with the bluejackets. A marine performs none of the drudgery or workings of the ship. His duties on board a warship are strictly military. He is heartily hated by the man "before the mast" and regarded in consequence, as an inferior kind of a human being. Hence the legend common among sailors regarding any doubtful story embodied in the statement: 'Go tell that to the marines' for sailors won't believe it.

But the marine has an important part to perform in the manning of a war ship. He not only stands guard over the officers' quarters, but, in the event of trouble ashore, he is the first one to be called upon to land and march to the scene of disturbance to help quell it. The marine is as essential on board a modern battleship as he ever has been as a safeguard against mutiny at sea and as an invaluable auxiliary for shorework wherever a naval vessel may be summoned to suppress disorder or to enforce national claims. If the marine corps had been in existence in the British navy before the mutiny of the Nore the records of British naval history would never have been blurred by that sanguinary event.

Passing of a Great Actor.

The sudden death of Coquelin has removed from the French dramatic stage its brightest star, if we except the divine Sara Bernhardt for the two have figured during the past two decades as the greatest interpreters conjointly of the French drama. Coquelin was to the French stage what the elder and the younger Edwin Booths were to the American and with Sara Bernhardt what Sir Henry Irving and Ellen Terry were to the English stage.

Coquelin was the interpreter of Rostand the modern Shakespeare of France, whose Cyrano de Bergerac has been pronounced by dramatic critics to be the equal of anything produced by the bard of Avon. And at the time of his death he was cast for the principal role in "The Chanticleer," a comedy of the brute creation, which has been long announced as the greatest of Rostand's works, although until very recently the manuscript was incomplete.

Many years ago, Coquelin and Sara Bernhardt toured the United States and visited these Pacific shores, appearing together in L'Aiglon, Cyrano de Bergerac and other plays before appreciative audiences, and the memory of the visit and of their incomparable presentation of the characters they impersonated remains green today in the minds of the play-goers of the bay cities. Coquelin's death is a distinctive loss not only to the French stage, but to the international dramatic profession in general also. Through is demise the civilized world has lost one of its greatest artists and interpreters of the modern drama.

It is to be hoped that the scandal which has broken out in the Berkeley High School will not be communicated to our own. But Principal Keyes makes very broad charges of petty thefts being committed by some of the High School students. In order to purge the school of the offenders, Principal Keyes has enlisted the co-operation of the Students' Council. There are doubtless "black sheep" in every largely attended school, not only in Berkeley and this city but also in all other communities, and drastic measures must be resorted to frequently to punish them for their evil propensities in the event that all efforts to curb them have failed. The Berkeley Board of Education has resorted to publicity and expulsion, in all probability Oakland will have to follow suit.

Secretary of Labor and Commerce Straus is evolving a plan to bring the manless job and the jobless man together, as a means of solving the problem of the unemployed and relieving the distress of the latter because of his failure to get work and the distress of the man who has work for labor to perform but cannot get the laborers. If Secretary Strauss is able to work out a practical plan which will lift both interest forever above all fear of their present difficulty he will prove himself to be a great and national benefactor.

It is a little early to put Taft up as a candidate in the field in 1912 but the Democratic New York State Legislature have taken time by the forelock and nominated Frank O. Nevlands as his own successor in the United States senate they adopted a resolution naming him as the next party candidate for the presidency.

The capacity of the butter men does not appear to be taxed to famine prices if the product of spring grass but the special agents of the Internal Revenue have discovered a systematic watering of butter on which adds from 2 to 4 per cent to the profits in the preparation of the butter for market.

Continuance of the present fine weather throughout the rest of the week will result in the restoration of railroad communication between all points in the State and Oregon where the late storms and floods have caused the suspension of traffic.

Later reports from the flooded districts in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys represent that the damage done is materially less than first estimated.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES SHOW LARGE AMOUNT OF WORK DONE

At the quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the Associated Charities of Oakland the following report was presented, much information regarding interesting work in the city being given:

Many cases of distress have been relieved during the past two months by the Associated Charities. Following is a statement of the work done:

Families under the care of the society, Dec. 1, 1909 90
Families taken under care during December 30
Families discharged during December 20
Families under the care of the society, Jan. 1, 1910 100
Persons in families under the care of the society, Jan. 1, 1910 400
Visits received 1000
Visits made 900
Letters written 500
Groceries ordered given 80
Clothing 200
Coal 55
Medicine 90
Doctor and nurse 6
Hospital 0
Rent 30
Food and lodging 0
Miscellaneous entertainment for children 0
Total 1

Interest Aroused

Through the efforts of the Associated Charities efficient methods have been devised to secure a full investigation of the case of the sick poor. A system was introduced by the secretary, Miss Parsons, in August and passed into operation in October.

Miss Parsons's efforts were set forth in a large number of applications for the position and recommended to the board of fire and police commissioners for their approval. Miss Parsons began her work November 11, 1909, and in that time December 11 made 1000 visits, also she reports that 30 new families have been assisted and that 20 families have been discharged, leaving 100 families under the care of the society. Also she reports that 400 persons have been benefited by the work of the society.

The reports show that the Associated Charities of Oakland has worked in many lines of charity and has been of great benefit to the community. It is hoped that the new plan of the board of directors to send out a monthly statement of its operations will result in a still greater benefit to the city.

Following is a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Associated Charities for the month of December, 1909:

Money Expended.

The society collected by the income from the expenses of the fair and benefits and collections held in Oakland in September was expended as follows:

Received from M. Jonas	$450 80
Membership fees	75 00
		$ 525 80
Expenditures—
Commissions on collection	$ 10 63
Fair Bureau expenses	150
Office expenses	4 91
Postage	1
Printing	60
Total expenditures		227 04
Balance for funeral expenses		$298 76
Funeral expenses—
Coffin	9
Embalming	70
Cloth and silk	60
Special work in repairing	20
Cemetery		40
Note book		0
Express on 4 pots		0
		$150 5

It would seem that one generous individual could pay the balance on the Howard funeral expenses and relieve the society of the debt.

Mrs. Cox was seen in person by the superintendent of Alameda county and now has the matter in hand.

The office of the Associated Charities is open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily, except Saturday, when it is open from 9 a. m. to 12 m. The telephone number is Oakland 1695.

Assists County

Mr. Butler of the board of supervisors has made a public statement that Dr. Emmons and others failed to display any willingness to help pay the cost of the Associated Charities' work in behalf of the county's poor. Dr. Emmons has called attention to the fact that the county was asked to do the work for the amount appropriated. This expenditure was for the work of the office only, and it was considered a desirable work and one which ought to be done by the county. Mr. Butler is the president of the Associated Charities and has been doing the work in the office.

The following is the report of county indigent cases:

County indigent cases on superintendent's list 1907 132
County indigent cases on superintendent's list 1908 85

In 1908 the bills sent to the board of supervisors for the support of indigents were cut down from $1000 per month to $500 per month, and during the months of April, May and June no bills were given to the county owing to a shortage of funds. During discussion of cuts and trouble in the board it was given out that the Associated Charities would be depended upon to help out the county in the matter of caring for indigents.

Mr. Butler said that the Associated Charities was not organized for the purpose of relieving the county of its burdens, but that it was organized for the purpose of relieving the poor. He said that the Associated Charities should not be burdened entirely by the county.

SOCIETY SMART SET

MRS. ROBERT HAYES SMITH HOSTESS AT ELABORATE TEA

The second and closing dance of the Oakland Assembly was held in Maple Hall last evening. Ferns large and small composed the attractive decorations used in the ballroom and banquet hall. In each corner of the ballroom canopies of ferns were arranged making cozy corners for the patronesses during the evening.

The balcony where the musicians were seated was a bower of dainty ferns concealing the musicians from the view of the dancers.

Immense fern balls were suspended from the ceiling, the chandeliers were enveloped with the same graceful foliage the lights being covered with pink shades the dainty color making a pleasing contrast against the green.

At the head of the stairs approaching the hall an archway of ferns was erected. In the banquet room fern balls combined with the slender grasses were the pleasing decoration.

Dancing did not begin until 10 o'clock continuing until midnight when an elaborate supper was served, after which dancing was resumed until the wee sma hours.

The affair had been anticipated with much pleasure and the clearing weather was gladly welcomed by the members of the assembly.

Willard Barton Jr., by whose efforts the assemblies were made possible received many congratulations upon the success he achieved.

THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB ENTERTAINED BY MRS. LANDER REDMAN.

OAKLAND CLUB

The assembly hall in Pythian Castle was filled to overflowing yesterday afternoon with the members of the Oakland Club and their invited guests. Ng Poon Chew, editor of the Chinese World, gave an interesting address which had for its theme "The Signs of the Times."

His subject dealt along the lines of education, claiming that the education of women was the foundation for all progress.

The Chinese believe in doing right and are tired of being downtrodden and bullied by other nations. Within ten years the speaker prophesied that China would have a standing army of 1,000,000 men. They now have an arsenal situated above Hongkong where 12,000 men are employed in the manufacture of implements of war.

The law which has been passed prohibiting the use of opium is looked upon as the greatest relief from bondage which the Chinese people could experience. Ng Poon Chew stated that in eight years not a trace of opium would be found in China — the drug which has sapped the life from the men, women and children of the vast empire.

Henry Lee, a young Chinaman who is preparing to enter the concert field, sang two pleasing numbers accompanied by Mrs. John Bassford. Another pleasant feature of the program was the piano numbers contributed by Miss Audrey Beers, a talented pupil of John Metcalf.

Her numbers were interpreted with an intelligence not often seen in one so young.

At the conclusion of the program a social hour was enjoyed, coffee and sandwiches being served in the parlors.

ELABORATE AFFAIR

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was that given at the Ellis residence in East Oakland last evening. The affair was given in honor of Miss Vera Robinson and Keefer and Miss Hazel Gentry and George Robinson, two young couple who have recently announced their engagements.

The decorations were very unique and beautiful, electric lights being used with pleasing effect. In the parlor strings of red hearts were festooned, leading to the bay window, where a large heart of ferns outlined with tiny red electric lamps was suspended.

In the dining room an arch of pepper boughs was erected from which hung a large red bell, lighted by small electric lights. On the table were favors, knots of red with fluffs of the pepper tree from which peered out the tiny red electric lamps.

During the serving of the supper the chandelier lights were turned out, the decoration of the table making a pretty glow while the refreshments were enjoyed.

The hosts of the evening, Norman Ellis and George C. Ellis, were assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. F. D. Ellis and Miss Marion Ellis.

Games were indulged in before the serving of the supper, after which dancing was enjoyed until late.

LUNCHEON AND PRESENTATION

One of the very charming luncheons of the week took place Tuesday at the pretty home of Mrs. E. A. Mills, 1st Oakland. The hostess entertained in compliment to Mrs. Frank L. Thomas, second president of the club who will leave in a few weeks for Honolulu.

The flowers for the decoration of house and tables were violets and ferns. Many bright toasts were given and the club presented Mrs. Thomas with a beautiful spoon appropriately engraved. Mrs. Julius Joseph, making the presentation in her usual clever and pretty manner. Mrs. Thomas responded feelingly after which several songs were delightfully given by the ladies among whom are many very pleasing and well cultivated voices.

Those present were:

Mrs. Jennie T. Thomas	Mrs. Thomas Lee Osborn
Mrs. Stuart Merrill	Mrs. Carrel Hill
Mrs. M. Phillip Moritz	Mrs. Moritz Eggan
Mrs. J. Wilkinson	Mrs. E. Vanloan
Mrs. Duncan A. Mac-donald	Mrs. Clarence Shortman
Mrs. Julius Joseph	Mrs. Willard Gutches
Mrs. Alma Martin	Mrs. Mercy Constable
Mrs. William L. Travis

ENTERTAINED COMMITTEES

Mrs. M. L. Broadwell entertained the members of her decorating committee and also the president of the Alta Mira Club and chairman of luncheon committee at her artistic home in San Leandro. The living room and reception halls were effectively decorated with Oregon grape, huckleberry and narcissus. In the dining room violets and a paragus ferns made a pleasing combination.

Oracles were divined by means of the tea cup which afforded much amusement. Fortunes were told by palmistry which added to the pleasure of the day.

The entertainment of the afternoon concluded with several fancy dances.

Those present were:

Mrs. W. H. Dynes	Mrs. Leo Post
Mrs. Henry Jones	Mrs. H. J. Norton
Mrs. W. F. Peters	Mrs. H. I. Hyde
Mrs. Humphreys
Mrs. W. A. Bryan	Mrs. Leonard Smith

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

On Tuesday evening, January 5, the Misses Maude and Louis Griswold entertained about two dozen friends at their home in Alameda, the occasion being the birthday anniversaries of the young hostesses.

A surprise was given the guests when they assembled around the supper table. A basket was suspended from the chandelier from which parti-colored ribbons extended to each plate. Bon bons were attached to each ribbon, within which were tiny cards bearing the names of Maude P. Griswold and Howard M. Hansbrow.

In this original manner the announcement of the engagement was told the assembled guests. Congratulations followed and a merry evening was enjoyed by all present.

No date has as yet been set for the wedding.

LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. Robert Hayes Smith entertained today at an elaborate luncheon at the Hotel Oakland. The affair was given to compliment three of this season's debutantes. Those for whom the affair was planned were Miss Ella McMullin, Miss Anita Wellman and Miss Anita Heron of Stockton.

Over a score of guests filled the house on the day with the attractive spring buds.

Mr. Smith who left on his annual trip was Miss Sue Mitchell of Stockton. He has recently returned from the Hawaiian Islands which he included in his journey to the Pacific coast. Mr. Smith is a prominent host, who is greatly missed in social circles during his absence. A delightful time will be anticipated the coming week for much entertaining.

INTERESTING RECITAL

Miss Sidney Miller, pupil of Alexander Stewart, gave a recital in the auditorium of the Stewart Studios in the Mills Building last evening. The interesting number of the program consisted of a small group of French songs rendered by Miss Stewart in the Maple Hall building Friday afternoon of last week (January 22).

The numbers rendered by Miss Miller (Bazzel the Female Mimic) were Si Pauvre Suis-Je (Nevada), Seleze (Wagner), Le Cor (Gounod), Le Grief Smith and Mail (Valentin Mopin). In which Miss Miller displayed a plain but sympathetic voice.

Miss Elsie Ostrander, a pupil of Miss Grace Davis Northrup, entertained several songs.

Miss Miller will give a recital in San Francisco in the small ballroom of the Fairmont sometime in January.

HILLCREST CLUB

The Hillcrest Club was entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. Will Mason Clarke on Lind Avenue, at the conclusion of the card games which were played as follows:

First prize	Mrs. Phillip de Guire
Mrs. Neal	Mrs. Hall
Mrs. J. J. Wilson	August Hoberg
Mrs. Mahoney	Mr. and Mrs. Hall
Mr. and Mrs. Hall	Mr. and Mrs. Neal
Mr. and Mrs. John Bovill	Mr. and Mrs. Wilson
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson	Mr. and Mrs. Will Clarke

THEATER PARTY

A small theater party was given in honor of Miss Ella Berlin, a bride to be, last Monday night by Orpheum last evening. After the performance they enjoyed a delightful ride. The party consisted of:

Miss Lena Berlin	Miss Grace Ahern
Miss Ethel Bintze	Miss Ethel Coulter
Miss Hattie Hawes	Miss Jessie Nilson
Miss Ella Nilson	Miss Annie Belle McGregor
Miss Mae Hansen	Miss Miller

Miss Berlin will be married February 3 to Clyde H. Smith of Los Angeles.

CLUB BULLETINS

The Hall and Outland Club will hold a business meeting next week when it will be unanimously decided whether or not to join the annual meeting of the Alameda District C. F. W. C. which will be held in Berkeley February 2, 21 and 22.

At the meeting of the Hall Club on Tuesday following the election of delegates and alternates, annual interesting questions fund in the question box will be discussed.

The meeting of the Oakland Club will be held on Wednesday and at the conclusion of their election there will be

THIEVES CLIMB THROUGH WINDOWS TO GET LOOT

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—By climbing through a window in the rear of the home of Mrs. R. Rothschild at 1509 Hyde street some time last night, burglars secured jewelry valued at $150. It was without doubt one of Mrs. Mary McCloskin's flats on Nob hill, Larkin and Sutter streets, was also the scene of entrance by a thief early this morning, and away with a watch and chain valued at $25.

$5 in cash was taken from the store of William Allen, a grocer, at 2301 Fillmore street some time last night.

BEAUTY DOCTOR

Says the New Method Increases the Bust Measurement and Rounds the Arms and Neck

(BY CLARA BELLE M.)

(From Chicago Examiner.)

Speaking from my own personal knowledge and from observations which I have carefully noted in the past years, I should say that Miss Monroe really owed her great success as a beauty specialist to the use of a simple [illegible] which is now exploited to develop the bust arms and neck. Her [illegible] acquainted with this formula and have used it with much [illegible] delightful results.

Miss Monroe's [illegible] development [illegible] only on both [illegible] diminishes from the [illegible] use of the following [illegible] suggested two [illegible] give and exercise [illegible] may not [illegible] and let stand [illegible] of bay rum and 3 ounces [illegible] Shake well and [illegible] to the neck arms and bust, rubbing and massaging until it is completely [illegible] then wash the parts treated with [illegible] hot water and soap and dry thoroughly. Apply the ointment morning and night regularly for [illegible] weeks or months as the case may require and the most artistic fullness and rounding out of hollow places will reward you.

Anty Drudge Agrees with Nellie.

Man—"Let's play washday, Nellie, and wash the dolly's clothes. We'll use this tin pail for a washboiler and I'll go put it on the kitchen stove to heat water."

Nellie—"Oh, no! Mama doesn't wash that way. She washes with Fels-Naptha in lukewarm water and she says it's lots easier."

Anty Drudge—"Nellie is right, children. The Fels-Naptha way is a long sight easier and better way of washing than boiling the clothes. It's more like play and saves clothes wonderfully."

The old-fashioned wash-boiler way of washing clothes is bad enough in Summer when it can be done out of doors.

In the Winter, when four walls keep in all the steam and all the nauseous odors so you have to stew in them, washing clothes that way is drudgery of the most disagreeable kind.

Are you foolish enough to continue it?

You won't be when you have once done your washing the Fels-Naptha way in lukewarm water.

No boiling of clothes. No steam Turkish bath to reek in and blotch your face.

No smells. No back-breaking work.

Washing with Fels-Naptha in lukewarm water is just as pleasant in Winter as in Summer.

Try it next washday. All that's necessary is to follow simple directions printed on the red and green wrapper.

Try it for the flannels, woolens, colored clothes as well as the white things.

Be sure to get the genuine Fels-Naptha.

WOMAN COUNTERFEITER BATTLES WITH POLICE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. —Caught with counterfeit molds and quantity of spurious money in their possession Insie Livingston and Robert F. Bradley attempted desperately with officers of the law last evening in an effort to get rid of the evidence against them.

They were subdued and arrested only after a hard struggle. The arrest in custody and warrant formally charging them with counterfeiting will be sworn out today.

The [illegible] was made by Secret Service Agents H. M. Moffett and J. M. Nice and Detective George McMahon who broke in upon the couple while they were eating their evening meal in an apartment in Montgomery street near Lombard.

That the couple were working on a scheme of counterfeiting has been known to the secret service agents for weeks.

In the room in which the arrests were made three metal molds for fifty cent pieces and one for twenty-five cent pieces were found. Between usually fine workmanship of $10 and $20 of worthless money was also found.

Bradley, who is thirty-two years old and whose correct name is said to be Robert O. Bradburn, is believed to have been the instigator of the counterfeiting scheme. The woman is young, barely twenty-two, petite and pretty and made in love with Bradley. She is known as Mrs. Bradley and also as Mrs. Edna Kiefer.

Bishop Shocked at Society Sheath Gowns

Sheath gowns no longer shock the public of the national capital even where the lack of other clothing is painfully obvious. Mrs Nicholas Longworth in a trailing robe of cloth of gold looked very entrancing at a recent afternoon fete at the White House. The gown clung to her like the outer covering to an ear of corn and when she stood in the broad shaft of sunlight which poured in from the bow window those in the East Room were speechless. With the return of speech they have been busy telling about it ever since.

Miss Katherine Elkins wears a knit silk gown which is exquisite but if she still clings to that essential feminine garment called the petticoat hers must be made of tulle. Then the decolletage. Will it surpasses all the efforts of all previous years.

At a recent White House levee Mrs Burton Harrison Jr wore less clothing than any woman was ever permitted to in that historic pile. Her gown was sheath of deep blue velvet and fit as snug as the cover of an umbrella. The train was a mere trailer which wound round and round and made walking rather hazardous and back and front the V shaped bodice reached her waist line. One woman said it did not require five yards of material to make the entire costume but her jewels were magnificent and were startlingly placed. The President should appoint a gown censor if clergymen are invited to these functions. Such a worldly wise man as the Bishop of Washington, Rev. Alfred Harding made some vigorous remarks about the vulgarity and bad taste of such costumes and hastened to get his wife and young daughter out of the company.

Wealthy Widow

Weds Hired Man in Secret

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.—Two months ago Mrs. Mary Roseberry, a wealthy widow of Knight Landing, Yolo county, was secretly married in Stockton to her hired man, Moss Miller of Chico. Her children have now been informed of the wedding and are said to be taking it philosophically.

Mrs. Roseberry last summer hired Miller to care for her ranch near Knight's Landing while she spent her vacation in Glenn county. When she returned he remained on the ranch to assist with the fall work, and Cupid found excuses for being absent last November for a short time, and each in due season returned. Miller resuming his position as hired man. Miller now has been elevated to a more important position.

Atlanta's Best Dressed Woman Is Divorced

NEW YORK, January 28.—Some of the facts in relation to the suit of Mrs. Hannah Bar Steiner, noted as "the best dressed woman in Atlanta," against her husband, Ira Steiner, came out when it was learned that Mrs. Steiner had been granted a divorce.

It was she who filed the petition for divorce in Atlanta, Ga., and the filing of it created a sensation there. Mrs. Steiner has been living at the Hotel Astor in this city for several months. She was there yesterday afternoon when she received a telegram announcing that she had got her divorce.

"I suppose I ought to feel very happy and ought to celebrate in some way," she said. "But I don't feel that way about it. I have a message from an Atlanta friend saying that 'you are free to marry again.' Just as though I wanted to marry! Once is enough for me! No, I don't say positively that I shall not marry again, but I don't believe that I shall."

Eloped in New York

Mrs. Steiner was formerly Hannah Bar of West Thirty-ninth street, this city. She was a boarding school miss and met Ira Steiner, the only son of Albert Steiner, millionaire brewer of Atlanta, Ga. Miss Bar was sixteen years old then. In 1894 she and young Steiner, who was attending a private school here, eloped and were married by a justice of the peace. There was a big row raised by the parents of Steiner and a similarly violent objection presented by the parents of the young bride. But there was no way out of it and the families held a conference and agreed to make the best of the youthful alliance.

There was a great deal of conflict between the young couple however, after a few weeks of martial joy. On several occasions the bride left her husband.

Fair Divorcee in the Case

Several years ago Mrs. Steiner was advised that her husband was unduly friendly with a very well known Atlanta divorcee. Two years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Steiner after the establishment of a family truce came to this city and stopped at the Hotel Astor, Mrs. Steiner heard that the divorcee was in town.

That woman, said Mrs. Steiner today, "has deliberately come here following my husband. Maybe he arranged it, I don't know. Anyhow, when I met a friend who told me that she was in town I began to understand. So I hired a private detective and located this woman and my husband at a hotel in West Forty-sixth street. I confronted them and that creature had the nerve to say, 'Why, I am so surprised to see you here.' What do you think of that?" Then I packed up my personal belongings and left, and I haven't seen my husband since. The woman in the case was subsequently married.

It is stated by friends of Mrs. Steiner that her husband's family settled $50,000 on her to have the divorce case quieted. The young husband threatened to bring counter proceedings and did even make accusations against his pretty wife, naming several co-respondents, but the matter never got to court.

WANTED: Good Husbands

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 28.—The recent publication of the announcement that Senator Claude Hudspeth of El Paso would introduce a bill in the Texas legislature imposing a tax upon the bachelors has caused many young women of the North and East to write to him asking that he help them in finding husbands.

Some of the writers say they would prefer to live on a ranch, others would like to reside in Austin and still others have no preference so long as they get the right kind of a husband.

The letters commend Mr. Hudspeth for his move in behalf of the marriage life of the women of the country.

Why Divorce? Because—

Learn to Save, Then Give Your Wife A Chance

The excitement of the wedding is over, the new home has been selected and furnished and the newly made husband and wife draw a long breath of satisfaction and tell each other that at last they are settled.

They look around the cozy home and their hearts swell with pride that it is all theirs—their very own. Surely they can want nothing more to make them perfectly happy. They have each other, they have their home and a comfortable salary to maintain it, they have their friends—what more could mortal wish for?

There is however one other thing that they too need or the time will surely come when this happy family in their comfortable home will not be able to weather the storms of life.

When we are happy we do not like to look ahead for trouble nor do we like to do it. That would mar our happiness. All that is necessary is to talk to a lot of every man or woman that ever lived and it will show that life is made up of both storm and sunshine.

Bank Account Helps

The storm does not bother us much if we have wisely husbanded our money and this is a thing that can be done by the husband and wife working together.

Many of the most wonderful and beautiful species have become extinct. The trader who profits in this business and the woman who buys and he dies in poor and thoughtless and guilty company!

Slaughter Inhuman

Every lover of nature, every person of humane feeling, every thinking woman, once she knows these facts, must set the folly and inhumanity of encouraging the slaughter of these birds to secure the graceful plumes from the backs of the egret and osprey, not only to the cruel blots it will add to the already appalling total of bird life sacrificed annually to minister to a fashion that consists in the wearing by women of dead birds and their mutilated bodies.

The Hat Impossible

For the last of today, continued Mrs. Schuhmann, I must say a word concerning the hat. I don't mind the hat impossible, but they want it to be worn parallel to the floor, and successfully. In company with many hats of late, and times it is not made agreeable, and probable that its progress is. This twentieth century hat has had its use. It has acted as a life preserver.

Rescue! Help!

It has served as a raft for a half drowned puppy, and it has sheltered a mother and children from a tornado. The tall man rises shyly at it, and the short man can only see its shell with the veiled and whispered sweet confidences in the maidens ear.

No, their object in hiding is concealed. Mrs. Schuhmann has produced the vexation of spirit the meet the fears, the laughter, the satisfaction and the contrariness of mind she is.

Among the women who lost in the heaving of the long hat to illustrate Mrs. Schuhmann's address were Mrs. Daniel Martin in the center, who impersonated Mrs. Elizabeth Lawl in a Countess of Arundel of the 1431 period; Mrs. J. W. Hines in a Polk of 1840, and Mrs. Hartwig Wolff in a Polk of 1876.

Cartwheel Hat

A sad sight in London, she said, is the sale of thousands of bird of paradise and other bright tropical creatures, besides hundreds of packages of the long waving ospey torn from the backs of the living, still white herons and grebs. This waste of bird life goes on year after year solely to minister to a fashion hat consists in the wearing by women of dead birds and their mutilated bodies for the adornment of the lady of society.

Women's Big Hats Modern Life Savers

Society Leader Pleads to Save the Birds

Chicago society women members of the South Side Club sketched by Artist Lowry as they posed in hats of all ages showing the grace and beauty of ancient mediaeval and modern feminine headgear.—Chicago Examiner.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Society women members of the Chicago South Side Club posed in ancient, mediaeval and modern headgear to adorn a tale told by Fredrika H. Schuhmann of 4256 Vincennes avenue. The parlors of the Church of the New Jerusalem Swedenborgian at Forty-sixth street and Woodlawn took on the aspect of a grouping of the graces and beauty of all ages.

In reading the history of feminine head dress from Eve to Mrs. Potter Palmer, Mrs. Schuhmann came to the defense of the twentieth century cartwheel hat and decried the ruthless slaughter of birds of rare plumage for the adornment of the lady of society.

Woman's Resignation Is the Adjustment of Her Lost Ideals

A Weaver

I'm a weaver of dreams, and the dreams, alas,
Are the ones that can never come to pass;
But the loss of one that seems so good
Is repaid by the next one's likelihood.
So I weave again with a shadow strain
Of fabric that tells of a fairyland.

I weave me a tale that would hearts enchain
With a story with truth as the covenant,
With a warp of life, and a woof of gold,
And a silver binding to every fold.
I'm a weaver of dreams, but the dreams, alas,
Leave me but the prayer that they come to pass!

'ITS ABSURD' DECLARES CONSUL

TOKAHASHI REPLIES TO ACCUSATION OF SENATOR

Marc Anthony Had no Grounds for Asking Removal, Says Japanese Official.

SAN FRANCISCO Jan 28 Before the upper house of the State Legislature yesterday morning Senator Marc Anthony introduced a bill calling upon Congress to request of the Japanese government the removal of the present Japanese consul-general at San Francisco on the ground that he had attempted to influence the action of the California Legislature

I can see no ground for the action of State Senator Mr Anthony towards having me recalled said Mr Consul General S Takahashi when seen yesterday Why I have been in Sacramento I have violated no laws and have kept strictly within the rights accorded a consul from a foreign country Reports of the proceedings of the Legislature of course have been received by me to send to my home office but that is one of the rights of my position Senator Anthony did not in his interview mentioning my removal so I understand by the newspapers that I have attempted to influence the action of the California Legislature

Absurd Says Takahashi

Everyone knows that such an act committed by a diplomat from a foreign country would make him amenable to consul from his own country It is absurd on the face of it and it would be foolish for me to issue a legal statement at this time My only note I am only the acting consul at San Francisco I am holding this office pending the arrival from my country of the new consul-general Mr Nagai who was appointed successor to Chozo Kikoe transferred shortly after the murder of D W Stevens the diplomat by two Koreans patriots

Further than this Takahashi refused to discuss the matter It would appear to be a matter of little consequence especially in view of the fact that in a very short time Mr will be relieved of his present post and sail for his home When asked if he would take any steps in the matter Takahashi stated that the entire affair was such a surprise to him that he was not prepared to state what he would do in the matter At this point the consul general summoned D L Richardson foreign secretary consulate general of Japan into his office and informed him of Anthony's move Richardson seemed to take the same view of the matter as Takahashi

Up to Senator He Says

"Absurd absurd" he exclaimed vehemently "Why Takahashi has only been the acting consul of the Legislature to report it to his home office No we will take no steps in the matter just now Senator Anthony has made his charge now let him prove it That is up to him and we need not worry over it Takahashi will leave anyway in a very short time He has only been filling the office pending the arrival of Mr Nagai the new consul general Takahashi was right in not issuing a signed statement at this time Wait until the senator goes further, if he will'

NASHVILLE Tenn Jan 8 When the trial of Col Duncan Cooper Robert Cooper and John D Sharp, charged with the murder of former Senator E W Carmack was resumed today the charges against Jurors Leigh and Hudson were taken up

Upon given the case for consideration said Judge Hart The charge of drunkenness is controverted but it is evident that the juror is biased and as such the defendant is entitled to a fair trial Therefore let his excuse Mr Leigh from service

Warrant Issued

I ask that Mr Leigh be held to the grand jury on a charge of perjury said Attorney General Mc Cann

If you wish him held answered the court I will issue a warrant

The defense objected strenuously to an action against Leigh but the attorney general left the room to issue the warrant Judge Hart then ordered the charge against Juror Hudson accused of habitual drunkenness brought to trial

The defense served notice that it was anxious to dismiss the men left on the jury on the ground that the dismissal of Leigh has prejudiced the rights against the defendant

The formal motion to this effect will be decided later The defense admitted that Jackson was unfit for service and consented to his dismissal This leaves seven men in the jury

ADVOCATES COLONIZING "CULLS" OF HUMAN RACE AND LETTING THEM DIE OFF

CHICAGO Jan 28 Extraordinary experiments were related with radical results and advocated last night at one of the largest meetings of the Chicago Physicians in the history of the city for the discussion of the problems of heredity

Dr Eugene Davenport of the University of Illinois created a great sensation when he advocated the application of the fundamental principle of eugenics to the improvement of the human race His treatment of the subject was based only on the parallel to the breeding but also on his own vast experience in meeting the practical problems of live stock breeding

Colonize the Unworthy

His chief argument was that all the "culls or scallywags of the human race should be taken before the courts scientifically investigated and if found unworthy colonized and allowed to die off

Scarcely less interesting was the recital of Dr W L Tower who told of experiments in intermarriage of Anglo Americans Germans Americans and Irish-Americans with the Indians of Southern Mexico He announced important scientific deductions arrived at as a result of comparing the work with similar experiments with different varieties of certain small South American beetles

Other men who have studied heredity in pigeons guinea pigs, turtle doves, rabbits and rats showed the results of their experiments

SHARP RAISE IN PRICE OF CATTLE

Scarcity of Stock in California Necessitates Shipments From the North.

The price of cattle has gone up about 10 per cent in the past two weeks the reason for this being say Mr Jobbs of the Western Meat Company, that all the local stock has been used up and that supplies come from Idaho Washington and Montana As it costs about $10 per head to ship the cattle the increase in the rise in price is very evident

There are no grass cattle in California fit to be killed at the present time and from all indications there will be none for two months yet to come

FIFTY THOUSAND WATCHING CONTEST

Tribune's Wide Circulation Backs Candidates---Past Contests Our Guarantee for Fairness.

THE TRIBUNE'S big contest is now the engrossing topic of the day in all of the fifty thousand homes which THE TRIBUNE enters. Everyone is watching the contestants and is planning to help some one of them.

Instruction to Friends

It is requested that all friends of contestants who bring coupons into THE TRIBUNE office ascribe to the right one them. Mr. Putnam and Mr. Gross are prepared to furnish receipts for these votes, and will also have your stamped envelope with which to mail the receipt to your candidate. This each contestant will be able to keep an accurate account not only of the votes he receives for himself, but those which his friends give him and he can have at all times the latest tallies with that published in the paper. Also it will show our candidates what you are doing to push them during him to greater efforts.

Invites Inspection

THE TRIBUNE cordially invites any one and everyone to call at the office and examine the contest books. Inquire into the management and count the votes if he chooses. Duplicate ballots received during the day is left on file and may be seen at any time. The final count is made by a committee composed of prominent citizens not connected with THE TRIBUNE and all papers as well as subscriptions and cash paid at receipts, will be audited by them.

Last Year's Contest

The committee who counted the final vote in last year's contest was composed of G. C. Brainard, advertising manager for Sherman & Clay and Co.; Keep, advertising manager for Shreve & Co.

The winners in both contests of last year are all more than repaid with their prizes and with the treatment they received from THE TRIBUNE folding and after the contest. Ask any one of them and see for yourself.

The Automobile

Mr. James I. Fee now represents this district in the Legislature won the automobile. He had as a close second Mr. F. C. Hinn who was awarded the round trip ticket to Chicago.

Extra Prizes for Women

Resume of New Legislative Measures

By EDWARD A. O'BRIEN

FIGHT FOR LOCAL OPTION IS BEGUN

Committee Skirmish Over Proposed State Law Portends a Bitter Struggle.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28. Considerable interest was manifested in this State in the matter of selling liquor, for the furtherance of which a bill is now before the house and is soon to come up for consideration. There has been a hearing of the measure, fathered by Assemblyman Wyllie of Dinuba, before a joint committee of both houses. It took place in the assembly chamber and was attended not alone by the members of the committee of each house but by a number of other legislators and the prohibitory forces who are at the capital.

The hearing was imperfect because only the proponents of the measure were represented, the main speakers for the opposition who are supposed to have in their possession all the facts by means of which the liquor dealers hope to show that the bill, if enacted into a law, would be of irreclaimable damage to the State, having been prevented from being present. On motion, therefore, of Assemblyman Mott of Oakland, the joint committee adjourned until Tuesday next at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Depopulates and Destrops

The speakers in favor of the bill were D. M. Gandle, E. Bristol of Modesto and W. B. Griffith of Montpelier. The only representative of the liquor interests was F. C. Dietrich of San Francisco, who stated that he appeared in behalf of the liquor dealers and the Royal Arch of the State, who had a great deal to say why the bill should not become a law. He said that the people whom he represented had compiled a large number of facts showing how local option had depopulated communities, destroyed business and seriously affected the welfare of thousands of people in other States throughout the union, and he desired that the committees would continue the hearing until the representatives of the interests referred to could be in attendance. The request was granted and it is expected that at the meeting one week hence the bill will be discussed in an exhaustive manner.

The bill is a voluminous one and goes into details with respect to the manner in which its purpose is to be accomplished. It provides, among a number of other things, for a petition on the part of the residents of any city, city and county, town or that portion of any county not included within the boundaries of an incorporated city or town, including not less than 25 per cent of the number of votes cast for governor at the last election to petition the governing board of the district to call an election to determine whether or not the district outlined shall become or remain a no-license territory, in which no license shall be issued for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The names on each half page of the petition must be attested by some person who is able to prove that the names of the signers are those of bona fide residents of the city, county, town or district. If the petition is in compliance with this law, an election is to be called by the city council, the supervisors or the town trustees, as the case may be, and shall be held according to the laws now in force in the holding of elections.

If the petition is filed within six months and not less than twenty days before a general election, the question shall be submitted to the electors at that election. Otherwise a special election shall be called within not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after the filing of the petition. No such election, however, shall be held within two years of any previous election at which such question was voted upon within the same territory. The ballots shall be so worded as to enable the elector to vote whether or not he desires the territory in which he resides to become a no-license territory or to remain such territory.

Licenses to Be Rebated

In the event that a majority of the residents of the section vote for no-license, liquor licenses become void. The territory is to remain in the no-license list until its status is changed by some subsequent election. A rebate, however, will be allowed to holders of licenses who surrender them to the governing board. After the result of the election has been declared it will be unlawful for any person, corporation or club to sell liquor in that district, but this prohibition does not include the use of liquor for sacramental purposes or for the use of the same in the entertainment of friends at one's home where no money passes; nor yet liquors intended by pharmacists for medicinal purposes nor for the use of alcohol in the arts. The penalty for the violation of this act is a fine of $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding six months.

Places in which liquor is sold in defiance of this law are to be declared public nuisances and may be abated. For the purpose of this law the officers will be allowed to search premises where there is reason to believe that liquor is being sold. The possession of an internal revenue special stamp for the sale of liquors on a place is to be considered prima facie evidence that intoxicating liquors are being sold on the premises. The board of supervisors, however, is not to be prevented from using licenses to sell liquor in districts which are not affected by the provisions of this bill.

LEAPS FROM TRAIN, STRANGELY DISAPPEARS

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—A search carried on by the Chicago and Northwestern officials has failed to explain the mysterious disappearance of a man from a passenger train at Maple Park, Ill., early Tuesday. A report that the man had leaped from the train while it was running at a high rate of speed was denied. "The passenger in question had displayed signs of nervousness," said an official, "and although he had a ticket for Chicago, seemed to want to leave the train.

"When Maple Park had been reached and the train was leaving the place, the conductor was told that the anxious passenger had leaped through a car window while the train was stationary."

COUNTY OFFICERS ARE NEGLIGENT

Measure Makes Radical Changes in Supervision of Fruit and Vine Culture.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.—The senate committee on fruit and vine interests has appointed State Horticultural Commissioner Jeffries to take the bills introduced by Senators Miller and Estudillo, to regulate the horticultural commissioners of the State, and form from them a committee substitute along the lines he has laid down on the subject.

When the composite bill shall have been adopted, there will be a radical change made in the law now in effect. This change will be especially noticeable in Alameda county, a large portion of which is devoted to horticulture and viticulture.

In that county there are three horticultural commissioners. One of them is located in Oakland, another in the vicinity of Hayward and the third in the neighborhood of Niles. Under the proposed law there will be but one commissioner and he must be appointed on his merits and not because of personal friendship for him on the part of the supervisors, party affiliation or party services.

Competitive Examination

The incumbent's fitness is to be determined by a competitive examination as to his knowledge and experience in agriculture and viticulture, and after he shall have shown that he is the most competent of the applicants for the position it becomes the duty of the supervisors of the county to appoint him to the position.

It was adduced at a meeting of the committee that in some of the counties there are no horticultural commissioners. This was deplored in a very decided manner, for the reason, it was said, that an injustice was being done the State by officials whose duty it is to conserve the interests of the people.

Twenty Counties Neglected

The State superintendent of horticulture stated that there were twenty counties in the State without horticultural commissioners. He caused still more surprise by declaring that in some counties the supervisors, after appointing commissioners, had an understanding that the appointees were not to act and that they were not to expect pay, regardless of their appointment.

It is proposed to amend the present law, requiring supervisors to appoint commissioners within twenty days after a petition for that purpose has been filed with them. At the present time the limit within which they must act is thirty days.

The inspectors who work under the commissioner now receive $150 per day, but under the proposed amendment there is to be a reduction of $1 per day. The pay of the horticultural commissioner is $1 a day, but under the new plan it will be $5.

LOS ANGELES ASKS $250,000 FOR EXPOSITION BUILDING

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28. According to Speaker Stetson, who appeared before the Ways and Means Committee of the assembly late last evening, Los Angeles county and city stand prepared to expend $250,000 for the development of an exposition plant at Agricultural Park. In the southern California metropolis if the State will appropriate a like sum for the construction of a big exhibit building.

This appropriation is authorized in a bill introduced by Stanton some days ago. He said yesterday that Los Angeles county would appropriate $150,000 for the erection of a large building in addition to the State structure, and that the city of Los Angeles would appropriate $100,000 for the architecture of the structure and whatever additional area is necessary for its perpetual maintenance. The building will be open to all counties in the State which desire to install exhibits.

BASES PAY OF EXECUTOR ON VALUE OF THE ESTATE

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28. Compensation of executors is fixed in a bill just introduced in the Assembly by Custer. The bill prescribes that if no compensation is provided in the will, or the executor renounces all claim thereto, he must be allowed commission for services upon the amount of the estate computed as follows: Upon the first $5000, 7 per cent; next $5000, 1 per cent; next $10,000, 3 per cent; next $20,000, 2 per cent; next, $50,000, 1 per cent. On all amounts over $100,000 the executor is allowed one half per cent.

In the event of extraordinary service extra commissions are allowed, which, however, must not in the aggregate exceed one-half of the regular commission. If there is more than one executor the commissions are to be apportioned by the court. Contracts for higher compensation than specified are declared void.

PRICES ON LUMBER ARE LIKELY TO SOAR AGAIN

VANCOUVER, B. C. Jan. 28.—Lumber prices in Vancouver have advanced $2 per thousand feet on common grades, and within a very short time there will be an advance affecting all outside points. It is stated that the price of logs has advanced considerably since last summer and they are now the next thing to being scarce. It is said that log prices will remain fairly high during the balance of the year, and that is the practical reason for an increase in the price of lumber.

OYSTER BILL IS A HORNET

Industry on Coast Is Threatened Should Measure Be Passed.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.—A bill has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Wright of San Diego, which has caused consternation among the persons engaged in the oyster industry in this State. If it should become a law it might kill the business in California and, at the same time, do incalculable injury to hundreds of innocent people.

Senator Wright, it is learned, introduced the measure at the request of a resident of San Francisco. He has not read the bill, knows nothing of its features and declares that he will have nothing to do with a measure which is not straightforward and above board.

Oystermen's Opposition

Several people engaged in the oyster business in Alameda county are here to oppose the measure, and with them has come Dudley Kinsell of Oakland, who is acting as their attorney in the matter. Speaking on the measure today, Kinsell said:

"The passage of Senate Bill No. 469 would result in the destruction of the oyster business of California and of Alameda county in particular.

"Under the act of 1875, which was specially designed to encourage the planting and cultivation of oysters, there has been planted on the mudflats and lands within the bay of San Francisco large quantities of oysters, which, at great expense, have been imported from the Atlantic coast.

Properties of Bivalve

"In the California waters the oyster does not propagate, but in the course of four or five years it fattens and matures into a merchantable oyster. To keep up the supply an annual planting is required, and in San Francisco bay, where the bottom is irregular and suitable planting spots are small and scattered, large areas are required in order to permit the industry to be carried on as a business.

"Under the proposed bill, no corporation, company, copartnership or firm shall be permitted to use any public lands for oyster cultivation purposes, but it is provided that a citizen may select and use, not exceeding forty acres, provided he, the citizen, resides in the county and, among others, make affidavit that it is his bona fide intention to occupy and use the land so selected for oyster cultivation for his own individual and personal profit and benefit and not for the benefit or profit of any corporation, firm or partnership or any person whomsoever.

Privileges Limited

"It further provides that the rights, privileges and benefits conferred by the act are expressly declared to be personal and limited to the individual licensee, and the same shall not be lawfully capable of transfer, assignment devise or inheritance and that such rights and benefits shall lapse and terminate by the terms of the original license, and it expressly repeals the act of 1871.

"Under the old act much money has been expended in the acquisition and development of property. Under the new act, this will be destroyed. The limited area to be used and the fact that all investments made are to be lost and surrendered to the general public on the death of the investor will inevitably result in the absolute abandonment of the industry in this State."

LEGISLATIVE NOTES FROM THE CAPITOL

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.—Colonel Smith of the Fifth Infantry, N. G. C., of Oakland, has come to appear before the assembly committee on military affairs, which is now considering a bill reorganizing the National Guard of the State on the plan which obtains in the regular army.

The hearing of the anti-racetrack bill before the committee on public morals of the Senate, which was set for tonight, has been continued until tomorrow night.

The direct primary bill was given lengthy consideration by the joint committee on elections and election laws last night in the Senate chamber. Speeches were made by Judge Davis, Senator Leavitt, Assemblyman Johnson of Sacramento, Senator Curtin, Hiram Johnson, Senator Wolfe, George Van Smith and others. No amendments were adopted.

Radical prison reform is provided in a bill drafted by Ed Morrell, former San Quentin convict, who came into nation-wide notoriety with the Santag-Evans train hold-ups that terrorized Fresno in 1892. The measure would establish the indeterminate sentence and do away with present-day sentencing to prison for a stated number of years by the court. Whether the person remained in prison would depend upon his conduct, as the warden would be the judge of the actions and conduct of the prisoner and would parole when in his judgment this should be done. Each prisoner would receive a wage of $2 per day and be charged $1 per day for board and lodging, and the prisoner would be released only when he has $250 saved in this way. Life prisoners would be eligible to parole after serving seven years, but the money but would accumulate during this time would go to those who were dependent upon the prisoner or to the victim of the crime. Morrell has arranged for a hearing before the House prison reform committee.

A delegation of school superintendents in the counties bordering upon Fresno appeared before the ways and means committee last evening to ask for an appropriation of $150,000 for the institution of a normal school at Fresno, in which industrial and manual training shall be taught.

Leavitt has introduced in the Senate, at the request of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, a bill providing that "every person who, with intent to injure or defraud, shall have in his possession a machine, appliance, contrivance or device of any character used or intended to be used to prevent a gas or electric meter from correctly registering the gas or electricity passing through it, or to convey or transmit around or past such meter any gas or electricity that should pass through such meter, is guilty of a misdemeanor."

Walter Leads of Los Angeles is after "compulsory insurance" companies in two measures introduced in the assembly today. One makes it unlawful for any person to receive wages for and the other makes it unlawful for any agent to give rebates. Heavy penalties are provided.

Governor Gillett has signed the bill declaring February 12 the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, a legal holiday.

The Bar association of San Francisco is moving for a number of proposed criminal code amendments introduced in the Senate by Senator Curtin. Some of these have the scope of the measures framed by the Commonwealth Club, propose to expedite the hearing of appeals in criminal cases, but they differ in some important points. The San Francisco Bar Association indorses the idea of two-thirds majority verdicts in all but capital cases.

Senator Curtin's bill to create San Luis Obispo as an extra judicial district, the anti trust law which he introduced, the enacted legislature, a charter granted to several of the labor unions from the anti-conspiracy prohibition. The charter reads: "Labor, whether skilled or unskilled, is not a commodity within the meaning of the act."

PROBATION FOR CRIMINAL YOUTH

Judge Wilbur of Los Angeles Is Author of Ideal Senate Measure.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 27.—The question of legislating so as to save boys and girls from lives of sin after they have taken their first step in crime, has been the subject of thousands of letters of request and suggestions to legislators from all parts of the State as to how they should vote on the matter and prepared the judiciary committee of the Senate for a discussion of the measure which has been introduced by Senator McCartney, in which Judge Wilbur of Los Angeles took a leading part in preparing.

The bill was really the work of the judge himself, after an extensive study of the laws of other states bearing on the subject. He has succeeded in combining in the bill all the features of the probation law in its dealing with youths and provides others for taking care of youths at the Preston and Whittier schools, in the event of their failing to respond to the reformatory effort of those in charge of the juvenile courts.

Trial Is Optional

One of the features of the law is that when it becomes necessary to commit an erring boy or girl to either of the reformatories a trial, if so desired, may be dispensed with. This was suggested with the hope of saving the boy or girl the opprobrium which would attach to him or her because of having undergone a trial and been found guilty. In the event, however, that the accused desires a trial, that right will not be denied, but the sentence will be suspended while the defendant conforms to the rules and lives as he while in the school to which committed.

The bill was generally discussed by the members of the committee and while all of it has not been considered the belief obtains that the measure will be passed.

One of the provision of the bill however, does not seem to find favor with C. Ruess, the probation officer of Alameda county, who has written on the subject to Assemblyman Pulcher of Oakland.

Probation Officers

The bill provides for probation officers in the larger counties as follows: San Francisco, eight; Los Angeles, seven; Alameda county, three. Senator Wolfe of San Francisco has offered an amendment, giving San Francisco eleven instead of eight.

Ruess of Oakland finds fault with this. He says he has resided in the three counties referred to and has done useful service work in San Francisco and Alameda counties. The distances are so great and the car service so poor in San Francisco that about one third of a social worker's time is wasted in extra transfers. San Francisco does a need in proportion to the population, more officers than either Los Angeles or Oakland, but on the basis of ten or eleven workers for San Francisco and seven for Los Angeles, Alameda county certainly needs five and not three probation officers. He has been working, without a vacation, three out of five nights and about three out of five Sundays for nearly two years with three part-time deputies. He can not, he says, begin to do his work well, and he, as well as those with him, will not be able to keep up with the increasing business without five instead of three probation officers. The population is practically the same as that of Los Angeles or San Francisco. He hopes that the Alameda county delegation will see that the bill is amended as suggested with respect to Alameda county.

STETSON STILL SKEPTICAL AS TO ADDITIONAL JUDGES

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.—The Moll bill to create two more Superior Judgeships for Alameda county has passed the House and gone to the Senate, where it will come up for consideration before many days. Senator Stetson, who is a member of the bar of Alameda county, has not yet made up his mind regarding the measure.

He stated today that he has read all that the judges of Alameda county have written in support of the bill. He has also considered some private letters which he has received from those gentlemen, bearing on the subject but he has found nothing thus far which reconciles him to the idea of voting for the measure. Senator Stetson says he is willing to admit the necessity for one more judge in Alameda county, but as yet that is as far as he is willing to go.

A Religious Author's Statement

For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and I was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy. Sold by All Druggists.

LABOR ASKS THE COUNTY TO DO PRINTING AT HOME

Resolutions have been passed by Oakland labor union organizations requesting the Alameda County Board of Supervisors to let contracts for county printing only to such printers as are entitled to use the union label and whose places of business are in the county.

Many complaints have been made recently by the union printers of Alameda county that the supervisors were letting small contracts to printing agencies who have no shops of their own and who often have their work done in San Francisco and often at non-union shops.

The matter was brought to the attention of the Central Labor Council at its last meeting and the resolutions were unanimously passed. The same action was taken by the Building Trades Council at its meeting on Tuesday evening.

The Model's Secret

A STORY FOR FAT FOLKS.

The Clark Model Association has issued their outline on the system of the art. The development and retention of a perfect figure is made the study of their pupils. As a result they secure high salaries and, of course, have corresponding well.

But good living and a perfect figure are seldom contemporaneous in the same body. They are so only when that body is willing to pay for her good times by strict economy and persistent, yet careful effort to keep her fat down. So the average woman who, being of whom are middle aged, have had to fight a good fight indeed.

Hitherto it was impossible, for now the struggle is less keen. Instead of dieting and exercising being their penance, the following publicity pupils especially find that we fit them to their proper proportions while they are learning.

Clark's Model Association is the only one in the world that has the exclusive right to use the Model Extract Cascara Aromatic and Aloes in syrup of Peppermint Water.

This is taken a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, and reports indicate it does not violate the trust put in it. Possibly a good way to fatten up keen to figure slenderer. In the meantime, while they are finding themselves, several have lost as much as a pound a day by its use.

ELECTRIC LAMPS FOR RURAL ROADS

Assemblyman Hans of Alameda Introduces Bill Which Makes Them Possible.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 28.—The clamor of the people in the outlying districts of Alameda county for electric lamps has been removed from before the Board of Supervisors to the Legislature. Assemblyman Hans of Fruitvale having introduced a bill in the lower house for desired relief. The measure proposes light for the roads at night in districts where illumination is desired.

The bill provides that a petition be filed with the county supervisors setting forth the boundaries of a certain district and asking the board that that district be designated as an electric light district. The supervisors are also to be asked to call an election to ascertain whether or not the people of that district want the lights. If the election shows that the people desire light, the supervisors are to levy a tax to defray the cost of the lamps and their maintenance.

Benefits Should Be Distributed

This measure is suggested by the inability of the people in the vicinity of a number of the suburbs of Oakland to induce the supervisors of Alameda county to furnish arc lights. A number of years ago the supervisors of Alameda county erected lamps and have since maintained them, in the districts outside the incorporated towns, along the San Leandro road, between Oakland and Hayward.

The several neighboring hamlets raised subscriptions and erected and paid for the lighting of lamps for a year.

The residents of Fruitvale avenue did the same thing and later sought to induce the supervisors to assume the burden of maintaining the improvement.

Several weeks ago other localities failed in behalf the supervisors to do the same thing on the ground that they had supported the lamps for a year and that it was only just that the county should bear the expense, for what they considered a public necessity and a public improvement.

Recently, the supervisors saw what was coming and by a decisive vote declared that no more county money would be expended on light other than that on the San Leandro road.

Business Men Take a Hand

After this emphatic refusal the business men on the north side of the tidal canal, near Fruitvale avenue in Fruitvale, raised a certain amount of money for the purpose of lighting that section and conferred with a representative of a certain electric lighting company and received the assurance that the lights would be of electric light district on the ground that the supervisors would be able to do more in securing the erection of lamps than a number of private citizens could.

JAMES EAGLE AND PARTY IN THE NEW E M. F. STUDEBAKER.

A Touring Sleeper Buffet Car

An automobile constructed to start with a few movements it could be transformed from a touring car into a sleeping car is one of the novel sights in San Francisco which everybody at present rides automobile.

M W Levy a San Francisco motor car enthusiast is the owner of the only limitation day and night touring sleeper with a Stubblebine fitted especially built from ideas furnished by the owner

The simple manner in which the car is converted with a few quick movements into a cozy sleeping car is a sight one rarely sees on San Francisco streets and must well knows all the people of long distance touring But never before has such a complete utilized A has seen it in successfully operated is an exhibition of the novel automobile

Mr Levy is fond of motoring and has made many long trips with his car

W W Moore the San Francisco branch manager of the Studebaker company has had a similar set with practically the same equipment but has used it in almost anything but a sleeping car way of touring affords a still better concern continues the policy of speed limitation

W L Ross the Oakland representative of the Studebaker is also using this week demonstrating the merits of the M F which he took to Sacramento the car has made good in San Francisco and will do so here

Mitchell Train for Europe

What promises to be a most unique American invasion of Europe will be made next fall by Mitchell Bros with a touring car train consisting of seven cars Mitchell cars to be used by this party will be the longest ever built and will be especially equipped with a group of Mitchell motor cars

The automobiles were included in the order two 1909 Mitchells motor bodied and finished with the same style and finish as the Mitchell cars with which Miss Maude Adams toured Europe last season

Nothing by the actor the touring party will include Mrs Meeker Mr and Mrs Geo McCall Mr and Mrs Sumner Hollis Mr and Mrs Geo W Lederer and William Pinkerton The automobiles will be shipped direct by train to the Bay factory so that the party who know full well the touring roads of Europe can start from any and every point of the compass will be enabled

The Mitchell party will leave New York City the middle of May and will be met at Paris about May 15 The automobiles will be included in the shipments of this unique outfit while the trunks and other baggage will be sent by express

Mr Meeker is giving special attention to the details of the outfit and has ordered a motor car equipment for the party which will include all the latest motoring necessities Mr Meeker will be accompanied by his wife and daughter

Motoring Through Snow

Motoring through a mountain pass in mid winter is what Arthur Fell a well known motorist of Hollister N Y who visited the city a few days ago has only had a little experience of it to the extent of snow to go through we would say that what he has done was touring and the experience must have been a most interesting one

Fell with a party of friends motored over the mountains from Hollister to Salinas and return in his 40 horsepower Thomas touring car The trip was made in one day and the distance covered was 120 miles

The snow was encountered on the Salinas side of the mountains and in places was piled up to a depth of from four to six feet

Fell says that the snow was piled up on each side of the road so that it was impossible to see over it and that the snow was so deep that the average motorist would not attempt it The automobile was driven through the drifts without much difficulty but the driver did not exactly know what moment he might be precipitated into a snow bank as the road was completely hidden from view

FOUR ROUNDS.
Chas. Southall vs. C. Coburn
Eddie Locan vs. Chas. North.

THE Reliance Athletic Club will hold what will probably be their last professional boxing night this evening at the Piedmont Pavilion. The club directors have announced that they will hold a series of amateur bouts each month in the gymnasium of the club, but they will be for members only and for that reason it looks as if the exhibitions of tonight will be the last to be offered to the public by the club. The contests that the management has signed for tonight look to be just the sort to appeal to the fancy of the fans, for each and every contest named looks to be made up of the slugging variety of mitt artists and this fact is always pleasing to the fans.

In the main event Otto Fritch will try to clean up on his old rival, Joe McGurn, who has proven time and again that he is one of the most consistent performers in the short distance class, and when he and Fritch hook up tonight the fans can expect to see some fun. In the special event Al Vogt and Jack Duarte will try to wallop one another into the land of nod and unless all indications fail this will be one of the sort of contests that the fans go home talking about. Lew Taylor vs. Billy Mills and Terry Keller vs. Jim Conley will make up the other six-round contests. It is expected that the men in these contests will earn their money by fast and aggressive milling, for there are many reasons why each should want to win aside from the fact that the long end of the purse money goes to the victor. Chas. Southall vs. C. Coburn and Eddie Locan vs. Chas. North will make up the preliminary bouts.

Trying to Land Langford

Sidney Hester, representing the Mission Club, is a very busy man these days, for he is taking time by the forelock and will try to have his card for next month's boxing show in San Francisco all signed up before the first of February. Hester has seen what it is to wait too long to sign up the fighter by the trouble that Levari has had, and he will endeavor to have his card signed and the forfeits up before it is so late that he will be compelled to tackle anybody as his brother promoter has.

Hester will meet with Joe Woodman, manager of Sam Langford, today for the purpose of talking over the advisability of putting Sam Langford on with Young Peter Jackson, and Jimmy Walsh on with Monte Attell. Hester already has Al Neil and Kyle Whitney signed, and with the other two bouts it would seem as if he would have a good card. With three such bouts it is only reasonable to believe that the Mission Club would have a good drawing-card at popular prices, for Jackson has made several good showings with Langford, and if the managers are careful to get the right referee to make Jackson fight the battle will bring out some good milling.

Lercari Breathes Easy

Charlie Lercari is at last breathing easy, for he has finally landed all his fighters and they are sure to go to the scratch. During the past month Charlie has experienced the very pleasant feature of having many of the fighters back down on him the last moment, and he now knows how very little their word amounts to. In the main event of the show tomorrow night at Dreamland Pavilion, Kid Harrison and Lew Powell will try to rock each other to sleep, and as the men have about as much love existing between them as fire and water it is expected that the going will be fast and snappy as long as it lasts.

In the special event Jimmy Reagan will tackle the hardest game of his career when he stacks up against Jimmy Walsh, and as it is a dead open shut cinch that any contest in which the little fellow appears will be well worth the while, there is more interest in this event than in the main event. Walsh has not had very much time in which to get into condition and it is just possible that Reagan, with his aggressive style of milling, will tire the champion out. In the preliminary Ollie Cornett and Terry Mustain will angle in a contest that gives promise of being a great battle. The referee has not yet been selected and it now looks as if none of the good referees are very anxious for the job.

Ketchel Is Coming

Stanley Ketchel will be with us in a very few days now, and then we will be able to hear plenty of the Langford-Ketchel fight talk right from the lips of the champion himself. Willie Britt, his manager, has been doing very well in his absence, but it really sounds better to have the fighter tell us what he thinks of the chances of a fight. Woodman and Britt have had several meetings of late and in a few days we should be able to know whether or not Coffroth is to secure the contest for Washington's Birthday. All that the promoter is waiting for is the managers to agree on some terms and then he will step in and make a bid. All the public wants is the contest and less talk about terms, so get busy, Britt and Woodman, and give us the real thing of the season.

Dogs Work Fine in the Field Trials

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 28.—After a day of sensational sport, during which the first and second rounds of the all-age stake were run, the judges ordered S. Christenson's St. Ives and J. W. Considine's Kils Viola down for the finals in the morning.

The real sensation of the day was the round between E. Courtney Ford's Tiburon and Christenson's St. Ives. Both dogs, handled by W. B. Coutts, were on the ground from 2 o'clock until 3:50 o'clock, and for twenty minutes cut a merry clip. Then working on a series of small hills they darted back and forth, pointing in a most remarkable manner.

The first brace was put down at 9:10 a. m. It was Boy Blue with Avalon. At 11:40 a. m. Santa Rosa and Kils Viola took the field for an hour. Madera Dick and Kils Linda followed, and the sensational Tiburon-St. Ives race came after luncheon. J. B. Terry's Corydale and J. W. Elvan's Kenwood Bangs, first and third dogs in the derby, were run. The second round was ordered as follows:

St. Ives with Santa Rosa and Tiburon with Kils Viola.

Pugilistic Brevities

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Six boxing bouts were held at the Sharkey Athletic Club in upper Broadway last night without police interference, as had been predicted in the windup, which went the full ten scheduled rounds, Young Loughrey of Philadelphia easily defeated Paddy Sullivan of Brooklyn.

VALLEJO, Jan. 28.—Battling Robinson, a local colored prize fighter, has challenged Frank Burgess of San Francisco for a fight to take place here in February.

Following are the results of the amateur bouts held at the Cornell Athletic Club last night: Eddie Campi beat Joe Kling (two rounds), Joe Lynch beat H. Wynyard, J. Lacy beat J. Roche, Dick Wiegne beat Dan Ruiz, Richard Manfell beat J. McCafferty. Little Joseph Connell bested A. Marmon in a wrestling bout, getting two falls out of three. The judges were: H. Woodman, J. Rush and E. Briggs. Pete Carroll refereed.

The Empire Athletic Club of Sonoma county is making arrangements for a boxing carnival to take place shortly at Santa Rosa. It is proposed to match Young Turner of Oakland and Kid George of San Francisco ten rounds, W. Ritchie of San Francisco and Tom McCarthy ten rounds, and Jimmy Reagan and Young Stanley (Eddie Logan) of Santa Rosa ten rounds.

Baker Leading in Billiard Tourney

The fourth game in the three-cushion tournament at Carney's billiard parlor was won by Oaks, who beat Slater 40 to 26. The game was very evenly contested the first part, but Oaks' class told and he finished strong. The fifth game was the surprise, when Shumway met Buchanan. Shumway was supposed to have the goods over Buck, but fate ruled otherwise, and Buchanan won out in record time, making 40 points in 65 innings, which is a good record for any tournament in the country. Shumway was playing very fast himself, but could not stop the play put up by Buck. The final score: Buchanan 40, Shumway 32.

Baker had a walk-over in the sixth game against Slater and after the tenth inning Slater was never in the running, finishing very bad. Seen at the finish: Baker 40, Slater 16. Slater received a handicap of seven points. Tonight Charley Bougan will meet Buchanan. Baker is now leading with two victories and no defeats.

Clever Cueists Play Lively Game

The Lehner-Lovell game in the Oakland Billiard Parlor tournament turned out to be a real live contest, and quite to the surprise of all Lehner, the scratch man, was defeated. Lehner looked to be an easy winner at first. Though not playing fast he gained rapidly, as Lovell was seemingly nervous and missing easy shots. Lovell, however, gained confidence as the game progressed, and with the balls breaking well for him he reduced the lead so that he had 62 when Lehner reached the 100 mark. Lehner was still the favorite until Lovell came in for a run of 14 followed by 7, while Lehner got but 11 and 6. A run and 3 points for each man left Lovell with 12 to go, while Lehner needed 18. Lovell gathered 12, missing his thirteenth on a three-cushion try. Lehner tried to snatch a victory but the balls had persisted in breaking hard, and 16 was the best he could do. Lovell making his necessary one and the game. Lovell, 100, average 2 11-43, high runs 9-12-14. Lehner, 128, average 3 9-13, high runs 11-31-11-11-16. Referee, George Poget.

Tonight, Lilliard 160 vs. Leddy 125.

Pointer Is Champion

GRAND JUNCTION, Penn., Jan. 28.—Manitoba Rap, a pointer, the property of Thomas Johnson of Winnipeg, was decisive declared the winner of the championship stake of the United States field trials, the national championship of the year. The dog is little more than one year old.

Lodge Organizes Baseball League

On Monday evening, January 25 at Alcatraz Hall, the Indoor baseball league of the Woodmen of the World was formally organized, and the following officers were elected: President, George Stetson of Fruitvale camp, vice president, W. Hayward of Peralta camp, secretary, J. Boswell of Alpha camp, treasurer, C. Thomas of Oakland camp. A series of games will be played for a cup to be presented by a leading sporting goods house. The league has secured the spacious building known as the West Oakland skating rink where the initial game will be played on the first Friday in February (the fifth at 8 p. m. Next Monday evening the fours from Alpha and Forest camps will play a match game at the rink, Seventh street, between Wood and Willow. Harry Nelson of the Oakland league and J. Boswell, ex-State League, will be the battery for Alpha camp, while Harry Orndel and John Gaspord will be in the points for Forest. Peralta and Forest camps played a match game last week. Forest was defeated by a score of 14 to 6.

BROOKLYN CLUB HAS FAST BOUTS

The Brooklyn Athletic Club held a smoker at their club rooms last night. On the program were included four four-round fights and one six. C. Reif knocked out W. Keefe in two rounds after hard fighting. J. O'Donnell won a four-round decision over Lang. A Allen lost to C. McGuire after the third spasm. T. Hanna and W. Francis went the limit ending in a draw.

Young Attell of Los Angeles and Eddie Logan of Santa Rosa, furnished a six-round slugging match. Attell did most of the leading in the first three rounds, but from the fourth round Logan opened up and there was plenty of mixing. The fans went wild watching the boys. The bout was declared a draw, which met with satisfaction.

Reliance Club Has a Ladies' Night

Ladies' night at the Reliance Club proved a big success. The scholastic jiu-jitsu of little twelve-year-old Lester Ball proved the sensation of the evening. He is a wizard when it comes to getting through all the positions with the balls and handles seven with the same facility that professionals do five. Professor Leando has had the lad under his wing now for seven years and is proud of his achievements. The balance of the numbers on the program were well given and well received. Dancing followed the entertainment.

Stanford Brevities

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 28.—The track schedule of Stanford University is as follows:

March 13—Varsity vs. University of Southern California at Los Angeles.

March 20—Varsity vs. Olympic Club on the campus.

March 27—Varsity vs. University of Southern California on the campus.

April 27—Intercollegiate track meet at Berkeley.

The Stanford varsity crew appeared for the first time this season in the four-oared shell when the men rowed across the course on Lake Lagunita yesterday afternoon. Coach Dan Murphy is well pleased with the showing.

California Brevities

Coach Schaefer of the University of California has announced the names of those that will be sent against the Wallabies February 6. They are: Frontrank, Pfleger and Markwart; side rank, Carpenter and Bennett; lock, Talbaldes or Hansen; rear rank, Pauly and Swing; wing, Swartz; half, Dwiggins; five-eighths, Corf and Elliott; three-quarters, Harris, Evans and Watts; fullback, Lawton.

A game has been arranged between the University of California Rugby fifteen and a team selected from the Olympic and Barbarian clubs to be played next Sunday afternoon on the old baseball field at Berkeley. The probable Olympic-Barbarian team is: Full-back, Briggs (Olympic); wing three quarters, Snedley and Mackenzie (Olympics), center three-quarter, Elliot (Barbarians), five-eighths, Parks (Barbarians) and Larmelet (Olympics); half-back, Hyland (Barbarians), wing forward, Price (Barbarians); forwards, Sadler, Brown, Moverley (Barbarians); Aguirre, Hickey, Molino and Brennan (Olympics).

Phoenix Team Will Play Stanford Saturday

Despite the inclement weather of the past three weeks the aspirants for the Phoenix team of St. Mary's College have been getting in a good deal of work in the gymnasium and yesterday Coach Tom Keeney announced the nine players who will don suits for the first game to be played next Saturday at Stanford. From now till that date the new team will go through vigorous training and it is believed that the collegians will put up a classy article of ball. In the past the name Phoenix stood for contests of the first caliber and Coach Keeney declares that the reputation won by other nines will not be furnished. Following is Keeney's choice: Catcher, Simpson; pitcher, Leonard, first base, Wilkinson; second base, Leonhardt; shortstop, Fitzsimmons; third base, Wallner; left field, Scully; center field, Hart; right field, Wilson; extra, Miller.

McGrath Busy With His Marathon Racers

T. Clarence McGrath, better known as Tim, is a busy man these days. Marathon runners need the same careful consideration as are shown fighters. He is only different being, in a boxing contest there are a couple to look after, while in the long distance affairs there are dozens of entries. The latest man that Tim has on his list is "Silent" Miller, from the south, who won the Los Angeles to Venice race recently. Miller blew in this morning and with McGrath came to the sporting department of THE TRIBUNE. He says that he is feeling fine and will go in immediate training at Grant's gardens in Alameda. Soldier King has his headquarters at Shannon's place and is working himself into the pink of condition. Every day W. Stanley, another one of the contestants, entered for the run on February 7 in the Coliseum, may be seen doing stunts in the Park Stadium.

Ewing Marathon Mad

The track at the Coliseum is being fixed up in first class shape. It will be covered with cork linoleum throughout the entire course, thereby making it easy for the runners, as the air will be done away with and there will be enough spring to encourage all to do their best.

Cal Ewing is also Marathon mad and may promote races in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Sacramento in the baseball parks.

Dorando is ready to race three local men in a fifteen-mile handicap race, each of the local men to run a relay of five miles while the Italian goes the entire distance. If the races are arranged Ewing will have a cinder path built around the ball grounds at Recreation Park. Ewing is considering the advisability of matching Dorando or some lesser against Con Connolly here at some future date.

Coast League May Have Eight Club Circuit

Whether the Coast League will remain a six club circuit or not remains to be seen. According to President Graham two of the managers of the strife league have made propositions to have the outlaws and enter the fold. Who they are Ewing would not state, but it is believed that one of them hails from San Jose. Ewing hopes to have matters agreed upon and is confident he can be given out.

It is rumored that Al Jarman of San Jose will sever his connection with the San Jose State league club, and that he will be managed this season by Tom Burnett.

The bay cities league will be unable to play any more games at the San Francisco Recreation Park this season. The grounds are being put into condition.

The Northwest League is after Mundorff, the shortstop claimed by San Francisco. Yesterday Vancouver offered to trade Pitchers Emeh and Erickson for Mundorff.

Matt Stanley, the old catcher who was with Dugdale, announced his retirement last year, but now comes the word that he has signed with Vancouver in the northwest league.

Charley Comiskey and his famous band of White Sox will put up either at the St. Francis or the Fairmont.

The prospective umpires in the coast league are Jim Nealon, cousin of Joe Nealon, Jimmy Toman, Jack McCarthy, Jack O'Connell and Jim Flynn of last year's staff.

Just 440 players were used last year in the two major leagues. While the New Yorks boast of the fact that they have used ninety-four players in the last six years, Seattle claims the distinction of having out sixty men last season, and between forty and fifty the year before.

There is a good chance that Bollo Zelder the crack shortstop, will be seen in a Seal uniform during the coming season.

"Chappie" Dugan wants Harry Wolters, who led the pitchers in the California State League last season.

The Sacramento club pitching staff will likely be Charley Baum, Jimmy Whelan and Fred Brown.

P. W. Swanton, one of the proprietors of the Santa Cruz team of the California State League, has a two year contract with Devereaux calling for a monthly salary of $250.

Hal Chase, according to advices from New York yesterday, has sent in a new application for reinstatement to the national commission. That Chase's application will be acted upon favorably is the opinion of most everybody in touch with the latest decisions of the governing body, but his fine will be around $600.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 28.—Christy Mathewson has been secured to coach the Harvard nine this spring. He will report here for business on February 1.

With the sale of George Moriarty of the Yankees to the Detroit team, the question has been practically assured of Hal Chase's return to New York. Moriarty would never have been sold unless the Chase episode had been amicably settled.

The opening dates of the American League are: April 12, Boston at Philadelphia and New York at Washington; April 13, Cleveland at St. Louis and Chicago at Detroit. National League, April 14, St. Louis at Chicago, Pittsburg at Cincinnati, Brooklyn at New York and Philadelphia at Boston.

President Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox now reluctantly admits there is little likelihood of Manager and Fielder Jones returning.

President Murphy may appoint old "Pop" Anson inspector of umpires at the spring meeting of the National League. Last year Anson declined a position, now he is "busted" and in need of a job.

Little Gordon Hickman is the wonder of the Southern League circuit. He only weighs 110 pounds, yet hefts regularly and last year wound up the season with the best percentage of any Mobile twirler.

Joe Kelley has withdrawn his suit against President Dovey of the Boston Americans to enforce his contract for 1909 and instead has posted his fate in the hands of the national commission.

Hot Springs is the greatest resort in the country for the players during the idle season.

NADZU OUTGAMES HIS FIELD IN ALEXANDER HANDICAP

Clever Program Results in Many Form Reversals---Miss Delaney Again Makes Good for Her Many Backers.

By LEE DEMIER.

H. G. HEDWELL'S gelding Nadzu, furnished the surprise in the Alexander Handicap, which was the feature event on the card at Williams Park yesterday afternoon. Captain Jack Ryan's entry, Captain Jinks, was the favorite in the betting, while Nadzu was the second choice. The latter was allowed Captain Jinks to set the pace for the first quarter, and took the lead on the home stretch. Captain Jinks proved a good horse to follow, and was never headed, but Nadzu was the better horse at the finish, and won by a length and a half. Mountain Lad, who was the only other one to finish, was a length behind Captain Jinks. Nadzu paid $7.60 to win, $3.80 to place and $2.60 to show. Captain Jinks paid $3.60 to place and $2.60 to show, while Mountain Lad paid $2.60 to show. The other two doubled up as if they were shot.

Ace of Diamonds was best at the post, and a few lengths in front of the field, which was preceded from the start by Murphy, on the favorite, Figlet, which was pocketed in the bunch for a mile. Jack Denton, making his appearance, grabbed the decision.

Jacobite was made choice and again demonstrated that on edge when he won the third race, which was run in the mud. Gilbert sent him to the front when ready and was never headed. Tom Shew ran a consistent race, while May Amelia, the favorite, was never dangerous.

Miss Delaney proved a great favorite and came to the rescue of the talent in the fifth race. The Maudlit entry, taking the lead at the start, Belmore Bassett, the favorite, was outrun by Collector Jessup, but quickly took the stretch turn, and with a beautiful stretch drive, after being shown the way by Belmore, passed under the wire a length to the good. El Pleasanto, who was speeded, began to fade in the stretch, and was left safe for third position.

Don Enrique	105	El Plenty	85

Results of the second race, which was run for maiden two-year-olds, resulted in a victory for Ruth Street, at 7 to 1, which managed to squeeze in ahead of the favorite, by a neck. Mr. Lunsford, who was piloting the winner, was disqualified for a foul by Starter Jack Denton, making his appearance, and the decision, granted the decision.

* * *

Jacobite was made choice and again demonstrated that on edge when he won the third race, which was run in the mud. Gilbert sent him to the front when ready and was never headed. Tom Shew ran a consistent race, while May Amelia, the favorite, was never dangerous.

MUCH WEALTH IS USED IMPROPERLY

Episcopalians In Convention Deplore Improper Expenditure of Money.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 28—The laxity of the present divorce laws and the practice of keeping children of tender years from school in order to become wage earners was the subject of a convincing discussion by the Rev Cecil Marrack at the late afternoon session of the fifty-ninth convention in Trinity church yesterday.

Referring to th question of public honesty the Rev Cecil Marrack said

Improper Use of Wealth

"It is apparent that one of the most fruitful sources of public corruption in America is the improper use of wealth to influence legislation We believe that as citizens we should assist in the enforcement of the aw and uphold those for whom the church prays 'that they may truly and impartially administer justice' therefore the committee unanimously indorsed the request of the district attorney for increase l financial support and the secretary is instructed to communicate this action to the Board of Supervisors"

Elect Officers

At the close of the session officers and committees were elected for the ensuing year as follows

NEW CLERKS ORDERED FOR POSTAL SERVICE

WASHINGTON Jan 28 The provision covering the per diem allowance of post office inspectors in the post office appropriation bill which was read for amendment in the house were stricken out on points of order and later restored

A storm of debate was raised by an amendment by Gardner of Massachusetts, providing for an additional 600 clerks assistant superintendents private secretaries etc at stations of the $1100 class The amendment was adopted A further amendment was agreed to providing that the 600 additional employes shall be taken from those of the $1000 class

As amended the bill then passed the amount carried being over $ 84 000 000 practically as reported by the committee

"I can truthfully say that I believe that, but for the use of your Emulsion I would long since have been in my grave I was past work—could not walk up-hill without coughing very hard"

THIS, and much more was written by Mr. G W. Howerton, Clark's Gap, W. Va. We would like to send you a full copy of his letter or you might write him direct His case was really marvelous, but is only one of the many proofs that is the most strengthening and revitalizing preparation in the world. Even in that most stubborn of all diseases (consumption) it does wonders, and in less serious troubles, such as anemia, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, or loss of flesh from any cause the effect is much quicker.

Do not delay Get a bottle of SCOTT'S EMULSION be sure it's SCOTT'S and try it.

ALL DRUGGISTS

Let us send you Mr. Howerton's letter and some literature on Consumption Just send us a Post Card and mention this paper

HURT IN FIGHT; WILL LIKELY DIE

Teamster Lies at Receiving Hospital at Point of Death --Two Men Held

Thomas Howell a teamster lies at the point of death at the Receiving Hospital as the result of a blow given him with a hammer by John H Cummings of 1149 Wells street Both Cummings and Howell are under arrest charged with the crime Cummings is held at the city prison for the purpose which could have been accomplished if Howell had died

The fight which resulted in the injuries to Howell took place in front of the saloon at the corner of Wells and Grove streets Howell and Cummings had been drinking and had words which led to blows Howell was struck by Cummings with a hammer and fell to the sidewalk unconscious

The police were notified of the affair and Howell was taken to the hospital in an unconscious condition from which he has not recovered

The arrested men say they were acting in self defense that a dispute over a dog was the cause of the trouble and that Howell struck the first blow

Mrs Howell was notified of the affair and left for the hospital

Presidt Helps Orphans

Hundreds of orphans have been helped by the President of the United States Mrs Taft who is known as the friend of the orphan has in this institution with very little show of interest on the part of the general public Like Mrs Roosevelt she has taken a personal interest in the work and has been a liberal contributor to the institution

Mrs Taft's latest gift was a check for $100 which she sent to the Washington Orphan Asylum Mrs Taft's check was received with great pleasure by the officers of the institution

BABE AT PLAY BURNED BY CARBOLIC ACID

Mary the pretty nine months old daughter of Mr and Mrs James Powell of 1005 Sanford will at play picked up a bottle of carbolic acid yesterday and was terribly burned

The baby started to drink the deadly acid but the first taste of the fiery liquid burned her mouth and she dropped the bottle and its contents were spilled over her body

Dr Childs was called to the home of the little girl but his efforts to relieve the suffering child were unavailing and little Mary died at 6 o'clock last night

ALL ROADS LEAD TO NAPA ASYLUM

Ten Patients From Oakland and Other Parts of State Are Received.

Three insane patients were taken to Napa asylum today from Oakland by deputies from the sheriff's office All of them were violent on the train and gave considerable trouble

John August who was very violent that he could not be examined in court was confined to the padded cell

Mate the forestry student from the University of California was quiet enough until started for Napa and then it took two powerful men to control him

Miss Van Osdel the unfortunate Fruitvale woman afflicted with religious suicidal and homicidal mania had to be carried

During the day seven patients reached the hospital at Napa from various parts of the State and the attaches informed the deputies that five more were on the way according to advice they had received

INDIGESTION IS SO EASY TO CURE

Indigestion has always caused more nervousness than any other ailment

If you have indigestion you don't get all the nutriment out of your food that you should

Your worn-out stomach passes the food on without extracting enough nutritious substance to supply the blood and nerves

And if the nerves are not supplied with nourishment, they begin to rebel They kick up a great disturbance They make you irritable and cranky, you worry about trifles and you cannot sleep soundly at night you have bad dreams and you get up in the morning unrefreshed

Try Mi-o-na tablets the money back cure Mi-o-na will cure your nervousness by driving out the cause Mi-o-na will give you relief the first day It will cure acute cases in a few days and chronic cases in a few weeks

Belching of gas heartburn sour taste of food, waterbrash foul breath and other dyspeptic symptoms vanish before the mighty power of Mi-o-na

Try Mi-o-na All leading druggists sell it and think so well of it that they will refund your money if it does not cure and only 50 cents a large box

Mi-o-na sold in every town in America

Have you ever tried Booth's Laxative Pills for constipation? They act with comfort and satisfaction 25 cents a box

SOCIETY GIRL HELD IN BONDAGE

Joshua Klein, Under Arrest, Says All Is Well and Denies Charge.

TACOMA Wash Jan 28 A startling story revealing the alleged abduction of Flora Stanvaget, a young Tacoma society girl and a talented musician by an Israelite bondage in a small village in the Alps, is brought to light through the arrest of Joshua Klein, a well dressed distinguished appearing German, on a warrant charging assault with intent to commit murder

The warrant was sworn to by Hans Gilbertson a tailor of Mrs Stanvaget mother of Flora, and the crime alleged to have been made in the early morning hours Tuesday night when Klein attempted to aid the distressed mother in her efforts to secure the return of her daughter

History of Romance

The arrest of Klein is the culmination of a story with chapters in Tacoma Victoria Zurich Switzerland on board an Atlantic liner and in New York City

Miss Stanvaget and Miss Gilbertson spent several hours with Prosecuting Attorney McMurray yesterday telling details of the trouble which ended in the Israelite incident in this home in the early part of last year Miss Stanvaget and Miss Anna Hansset both fellow students of the girls and their daughters Flora Stanvaget aged 20 and Lena Hansset aged 21 left Europe to study music In order to hasten their departure in March according to the women at the girls' school in Zurich Klein a Polish adventurer and fortune hunter followed them to Vienna

Hypnotic Influence

It is believed that some influence which were induced to bring the girls where they are studying and in institutions in the mountains near Zurich Several months later Flora and Miss Stanvaget received letters from the daughter which indicated that they were under the hypnotic influence of Klein and that to the mercenary ends finally securing possession of the daughter When the mother ordered the girls return to New York they refused to leave Klein Letters from Miss Hansset to her daughter with funds to come home to Tacoma After the mothers departure the girls refused to return to Vienna Last fall coming to Tacoma

Tuesday Klein came to Tacoma and visited the Stanvaget home Mrs Stanvaget implored Flora to go with her mother to Vienna but Klein refused to allow her to leave the house Finally the woman said he would go herself

Interviewed Thursday night Klein stated that he was expecting any minute to receive the two girls and all they to Lapps in Switzerland and did not want to return here and this is the reason Miss Stanvaget returned to the east from New York

CONGRESSMAN IS TAKEN TO TASK

"Infamous Railroad Deal," Alleged, Is Stirring up a Peck of Trouble.

NEW YORK Jan 28—Following a statement yesterday issued in behalf of William S Harvey who was mentioned in the recent speech of Congressman Henry T Rainey of Illinois as being connected with the infamous railroad deal on the Isthmus of Panama denying that Mr Harvey was in any way interested in the matter Lindley G Wallace prominent civil engineer identified with work on the Isthmus comes forward with a letter in which he refutes that part of Rainey's speech referring to William Nelson Cromwell and others The letter says in part

"As I am the individual who is associated with Mr Cromwell in the management of the Republic and the dividend proposition referred but which I am certain the test of competent and conscientious criticism, I take opportunity of contradicting and all the other gross misstatements in connection with any connection such proposition and I assume the entire responsibility for having submitted it to the representative Rainey's fair proposition or unlawful to promote the welfare of the people of the Republic of Panama"
